HANNERS went to the Aeromarine Supply Company or Airport Highway twice on March 29, 1968. The first time was about 10:00 A.M., and he was there for about an hour, during which time he made a purchase. He returned sometime between 2:00 and 2:30 P.M., and stayed until sometime after 4:00 F.M. About fifteen minutes after he arrived, a man wearing a business suit, dark brown in color, came in and looked at some rifles From this man's actions it was obvious to HARNERS that this man knew little or nothing about rifles. He was waited on by an employee named BAKER. He finally purchased a Remirgton. model unknown, rifle and ordered a scope sight to be installed at that time. HANNERS left sometime after 4:00 P.M. and at that time this purchaser was still in the store. At the time HANNERS left, the purchaser was watching BAKER equip the rifle with the scope sight. HANNERS said he is quite positive he could identify this purchaser if he ever saw him again.

HANNERS recalled that this purchaser talked to a customer who was in the store at the same time on March 29, 1968, which customer was buying a gun case for a Varmist model rifle. This customer apparently was well known to Edward and HANNERS recalls seeing this customer have some convertables with the purchaser of the rifle.

HANNERS advised he had no conversation with this purchaser nor did he hear him mention any name, locality, cooppation, residence, and/or automobile. When HANNERS left the store he noticed there were several cars parked in the store parking lot, but could not recall any one specific car, except a small red midget-type compact. HANNERS further said he nad never seen the purchaser of the rifle before nor has to seed him since this occasion.
