RE: PAUL OSBORNE BRIDGMAN

The following investigation was conducted by SA WILLIAM C. ERVIN at North Augusta, South Carolina, on June 7, 1968:

Mrs. RONALD GREENE, Apartment 27-A, Savannah Terrace Apartments, advised that she is the manager of these apartments, and has held that position since September of 1964. She stated that when she took the position she was not given any records other than the records of current rental payments to that time. The previous owner was Mr. HUGO SIMS, an Orangeburg, South Carolina attorney. She stated that she came to work when Mr. SIMS sold the Savannah Terrace Apartments to Mr. R.O. BARTON, JR. of the Boatwright Company in Augusta, Georgia, who continued to own these apartments.

Mrs. GREENE advised that she had no current record of Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT L. JENKINS, who resided in Apartment 40-D. She stated that she would attempt to locate any record of them from records given to her, at the time she began working. She advised that Mrs. LILLIAN C. PRICE, who resides in Apartment 41-B, had been at that address for approximately fifteen years, and would know Mr. and Mrs. JENKINS, had they resided in the apartments for any length of time.

Mrs. LILLIAN C. PRICE, Apartment 41-B, Savannah Terrace Apartments, advised that she was closely acquainted with ROBERT and RUBY JENKINS, who previously resided at 40-D, the apartment adjacent to hers. She stated that Mr. JENKINS was a Sergeant at Fort Gordon, Georgia, with the United States Army, and he and his wife RUBY had no children. She further advised that RUBY came from Bloomington, Illinois, where her mother currently resided, and where she returned on several occasions to work temporarily in a department store. These occasions were usually caused by temporary duty on the part of her husband, who was frequently called to training exercises in other states. Mrs. PRICE mentioned that ROBERT and RUBY JENKINS frequently received the Bloomington,

Illinois, newspaper which was apparently mailed to them under a subscription. She further advised that her recollection is that they moved from the Savannah Terrace Apartments in September of 1963, possibly to Fort Bragg, North Carolina, and from there to Germany. Mrs. PRICE continued that her recollection is that the JENKINS' maintained a checking account in a bank in Augusta, Georgia. She continued that she would possibly be able to locate their last address on a card written to her by Mrs. JENKINS; however, this would take some time.

On June 7, 1968, Mrs. RONALD GREENE was recontacted and advised that a search of her records indicates that Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT L. JENKINS, resided in Apartment 40-D, from approximately November, 1963, to November, 1964. No other information was available in these records.

On June 7, 1968, Mrs. LILLIAN PRICE was recontacted and she advised that on December 14, 1964, she received a postcard from RUBY M. JENKINS, who was at that time residing at 2600 $\frac{1}{2}$ , A, Fort Bragg Road, Fayetteville, North Carolina. In that postcard Mrs. JENKINS advised that she was very friendly with her neighbors residing directly behind her. Mrs. PRICE further advised that she received an additional postcard on January 26, 1965, which stated that Mr. JENKINS had been transferred to Germany, and Mrs. JENKINS would join him shortly.

Mrs. FRANCIS KIRSCH, Credit Bureau of Augusta, Augusta, Georgia, provided the following credit report:

A September, 1963, credit report for ROBERT JENKINS reflects that an inquiry was made by the Junction City, Kansas, Credit Bureau, which listed JENKINS as a Sergeant E-5, of the 206th Signal Company, Army Serial Number RA55535647. A 1965, month of February, credit report reflects an address of 260 $\frac{1}{2}$ , Fort Bragg Road, Fayetteville, North Carolina. This report under the name ROBERT L. JENKINS, and indicates a permanent address of 409 East Mill Street, Bloomington, Illinois, Zip Code 61701. Credit record was satisfactory, and no further pertinent information was located.
