Reference 44-1987-Sub 187.

Reference serial reflects an interview with Mrs. MARY PAUL on 5-22-68 by SA JACK D. VAHRENWALD. Mrs. PAUL said on 5-22-68 that she had seen a man with a gun at Harlow's Donut Shop in Memphis on the night of 4-3-68. She described him as a white male, 6'3" tall, weighing 240 lbs.

On 11-12-68, Mrs. PAUL, who now resides in Apt. 618 at the Goodman House, telephonically advised the writer that she had seen today a photograph of JERRY RAY that appeared in the newspaper. She said she now believes that the man she previously described is identical with JERRY RAY.

Inasmuch as JERRY RAY does not in any way fit the description previously given by Mrs. PAUL, and in view of the passage of time since she observed this individual, it is not believed that this matter warrants further action.
