Dear Sir:

On or about the 7 of August 1966 I was committed to the Biggs Building on order of Marion County Circuit Court on my arraignment at Biggs Building I had with me my true忏悔书 and Valid legal papers to the date of Oct 1930, and I also had my license committing me to the Biggs Building so I could not take the train. The court did not allow me to be kept in my present property upon closing Biggs building. The property is now closed off there and that part of same has been sent back to Jefferson, the officials said they would return here either. I would appreciate it if you would have someone to see if they could find the property or I can't replace it. Please before I left the receiving office it was sent in a deep drawer in the receiving office.

Sincerely

James E. Reg
