Mr. WALTER L. BISHOP, third floor, 430 K Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., advised that he was not acquainted with EMIL MATALIK, but that he resided in the next room to MATALIK according to information given to him by Mr. WALTER McKENNETH, the manager. BISHOP said that he had been ill during the last several days and that he is certain that someone had been in MATALIK's room several times during each day during the last week, except that on the afternoon and evening of April 6, 1968, he heard no one in that room.
