Re 302 of SAs WARD AND BASHAM, W.D. Ward & Basham

No leads being set forth based upon this information or the fact that GEORGE DE MORHENSCHILDT is the subject of two 105 files in the Dallas Office those being 105-92 and 105-632. It is noted that he also has a 100-0-3947 reference.

For information of the supervisor of the 100 squad since it is not known whether this information is known or not DE MORHENSCHILDT introduced the OSWALDs to a number of individuals both at his residence and at parties held throughout Dallas for the OSWALDs. These individuals are as follows: VOLKMAR SCHMIDT, Research Department, Socony Oil, who met OSWALDs a week before a party given at the residence of EVERETT GLOVER.

In February, 1963, EVERETT GLOVER, 4149 Potomac Avenue, Dallas, a researcher at Socony Mobil Oil, gave party for OSWALD attended by RICHARD L. PIERCE, FLORENCE "BETTY" McDONALD, LEE and MARINA OSWALD, RUTH PAINE, NORMAN O. and ELKE FRIDERICKSON, and GEORGE and JEANNE DE MORHENSCHILDT.

BETTY McDONALD was interviewed in connection with this party which interviews reflected in 89-43-1653. PIERCE was interviewed which is reflected in Serial 89-43-1652. VOLKMAR SCHMIDT was interviewed reflected in Serial 89-43-1651.

It is noted that the GEORGE DE MORHENSCHILDTs in 105-632 lived at the Maple Terrace Apartments, Apartment 208, Maple Avenue, Dallas, in January, 1957. It is further noted that a communication from Kansas City indicated that RICHARD TULLIS would have some information about the whereabouts of his son who allegedly knew OSWALD and knew some pro-Castro Cubans in the Dallas area. TULLIS is presently living at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, D. C. TULLIS should be interviewed concerning whether or not he knew GEORGE DE MORHENSCHILDT, over the two days of Douglas Truman photo.

EVERETT GLOVER, researcher at Gocony Oil, should be reinterviewed since the first interview was quite brief and did not mention the DE MORHENSCHILDTs at all. A teletype was sent today to interview NORMAN and ELKE FREDERICKSON at University of Wisconsin, Madison.
