At 3:20 P.M. on 12-27-63, [redacted]

[redacted] Dallas, Texas, who requested that her identity be kept confidential, stated that about three weeks ago, an individual named RICHARD CARR who resides on North Bishop St., Dallas, Texas, had told her that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had not assassinated President KENNEDY. CARR is a friend of [redacted]

b7d

[redacted] A friend named HOLLY JORDAN also heard this individual make the statement concerning the fact that OSWALD did not assassinate the President.

b7d

According to [redacted] CARR was making an application for a job at a building which was under construction near the Court House at the time President KENNEDY was assassinated. CARR told her and the others that he was about 500 yards from the place where the President was assassinated and that he had seen the individual who had fired the gun from the Texas School Book Depository building, and that it was not OSWALD. He said this individual wore a hat, horn-rimmed glasses, and was of athletic build. CARR told them that there was a Negro man with a grey-colored car waiting for this individual after the assassination, and that the man who did the shooting got into this grey car. CARR told [redacted] and others that there were four or five other steel workers on the building under construction near the place where the President was assassinated and that they likewise saw the assassination. CARR said that one of them had been interviewed by the FBI.

b7d

[redacted] believed that the building CARR had reference to was a county building being constructed south of the Old Court House. She said that CARR was sober at the time he made the statement and although she did not know him well, he didn't seem to be a braggart or to be joking when he told this story.

She said that CARR is currently working on the new First National Bank building in downtown Dallas which is currently
