MISCELLANEOUS

On 1/17/64, J. C. WYDAL, Security Department, Sperry Farragut Company, Division of Sperry Rand Corp., Bristol, Tennessee, furnished SA JOHN C. QUIRIN with copies of letters from above person dated 1/12/64 and 1/13/64.

[Redacted] Enclosed with his first letter a write-up on his employment, showing various jobs such as technical writer, editor, television actor, engineer, analyst, motion picture actor, etc. This write-up appears to make sense and many of the supervisors named are prominent in the fields mentioned according to WYDAL. However, at the end of this typed write-up he made the following notation in handprinting: "Age: 39 Marital status: Single, but am courting Mrs. LEE OSWALD and her $24,000 via letter proposals." 7c

[Redacted] uses good English but apparently is not entirely of sound mind, making such remarks as "Will not fill out any more application forms, so don't send them. I mean it." (None had been sent to him by this company.) Also, "Don't want any local interview, and will not come if is offered." He offers to work in his home as a "Technical Editor" for $40.00 per week, working on non-classified technical reports. 7c

In his second letter [Redacted] offers to send all work on to BILL BEALER, Kett Engineering Corp., 920 Santa Monica Boulevard, Santa Monica, California, for perusal. Letter wanders and makes use of lengthy phrases to make little sense. 7c
