Re Dallas teletype to NY, 1/30/64 and NYairtel to Dallas, 2/4/64.

On 2/6/64, THOMAS FARRELLY, Assistant to the Collector, Bureau of Customs, NYC, telephonically contacted the NYO and advised that in connection with information he previously furnished, as set forth in reairtel, concerning subject's customs declaration, he wished to furnish the following additional information:

He stated that inasmuch as subject was accompanied by his wife upon re-entry into the US and as a non-resident entering the country, subject's wife would not have been required to declare any articles that she purchased abroad.
 The possibility existed, therefore, that a camera in their possession may not have been declared based on the technicality that the camera was the property of subject's wife and not subject's.

He added that a husband and wife entering the country only have to prepare one custom's declaration form.
