[redacted] telephoned SA W. HARLAN BROWN advising that he had been in telephone contact with Mrs. ROBERT MORRIS, wife of the Republican candidate for U. S. Senate. Mrs. MORRIS, who resides on Lobello Street, in Dallas, told [redacted] that some friends of hers had a daughter who was attending school in Tennessee. These friends, whose name she did not mention, had made a trip to Tennessee in July, 1963, and again recently to pick up their daughter there. While visiting in Tennessee during July, 1963, these friends of Mrs. MORRIS took a tour through the Atomic Energy plant in Tennessee. In order to gain entrance into the plant, it was necessary that they sign a register which they did. Again these friends of Mrs. MORRIS desired to tour Atomic Energy facilities of that same plant when they returned to pick up their daughter in Tennessee at a later date. Being curious, they decided to check the records of their visit to this Atomic Energy plant in July, 1963, and according to Mrs. MORRIS found their names and underneath their names was the name of LEE OSWALD, USSR.
