RE: RAUL CASTRO BAILE AND JUAN FRANCISCO QUINTANA MAYA

These Cuban refugees are known to him and he has no information that these individuals are engaged in any type of political activities or/and Cuban refugee organizations. (U)

RE: SECRET NATIONAL FRONT

Announcement was made to the Cubans [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] that a national Cuban leader of Alpha 66-SNCF-USA is due in Dallas in the near future to talk to the Cuban refugees in an effort to increase interest in this organization. (U) b7C

RE: JUN

This is the only really active Cuban organization in Dallas and probably in the United States. It is not too active in Dallas but does have a slate of officers and irregular meetings are held. Attendance is small consisting mostly of only the officers. It appears that the organization has money because it publishes on a regular basis a first-class newspaper. (U)

RE: CUBAN SITUATION IN GENERAL

CLASS. & EXT. BY 3908
REASON - FCIM II, 1-2.4.2 2
DATE OF REVIEW 7-27-84

There seems to be a great deal of hope in the Cuban colony for an uprising or an invasion in Cuba next month, May. [REDACTED] feel that the future political hope of Cuba is very dim because there has been much hate in general among Cubans there evinced even by the myriad of Cuban refugee organizations which vie with each other for the attention of the refugees and the members of which on occasion accuse members of the opposite organization of being pro-CASTRO or pro-Communist. This attitude among the refugees seeks only to destroy unity rather than create it. (U)
