Memorandum

TO : FILE (100-10461)

DATE: 8/24/64

FROM : SAC J. GORDON SHANKLIN

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka
IS - R - CUBA

With reference to Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD's call, I called the Bureau and talked to Assistant Director W. C. SULLIVAN, who advised that he had not actually accepted the call from Mrs. OSWALD as she wanted to make it collect, but he understood she had called back and talked to someone in Washington Field Office.

They put me in touch with Agent ROBERT P. FINZEL, who advised that she was making some wild, rambling statements, the gist of which was to the effect that former Agent FAIN had paid LEE HARVEY OSWALD's fine in New Orleans when he was arrested for distributing Fair Play for Cuba Committee literature. She was also making some other allegation against some Agent by the name of HOSTY to the effect that HOSTY and/or his wife may be leaking information to HUGH AINSWORTH of the Dallas Morning News.

I was switched back to Assistant Director SULLIVAN and advised him of this and told him that if he desired any action on the part of Dallas to please advise. Otherwise, we were just going to send in the fact that she refused to be interviewed by our Agents.
