Dallas, Texas

I, MARINA OSWALD, give the following voluntary statement to ANATOLE A. BOGUSLAV and WALLACE R. HEITMAN whom I know to be Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Dallas, Texas.

On about November 25, 1963, while I was residing at the Inn of the Six Flags, Arlington, Texas, under the security of the U. S. Secret Service, I was told by one of the Secret Service Agents that JAMES HERBERT MARTIN, whom I know as JIM MARTIN, had invited me and my two daughters to reside at his home as guests. I was invited to the MARTIN home for Thanksgiving dinner and I accepted this invitation. I had seen JIM MARTIN at the Inn of the Six Flags and had first thought he had something to do with cleaning up the room, but later I learned he held some position with the Inn.

During my visit at the MARTIN residence on Thanksgiving, 1963, MR. and MRS. MARTIN told me that they would like for me and my daughters to reside with them as guests. I agreed to do so and offered to pay my share of the expenses. I moved into the MARTIN house on about November 29 or 30, 1963.

About two weeks after I moved into the MARTIN residence, I was told by Special Agent LEON GOPADZE, U. S. Secret Service, that MARTIN had advised that I needed an attorney, and he, MARTIN, had a good friend named THORNE, who was an attorney. At the same time, GOPADZE, who speaks Russian, told me, For MARTIN, I needed a business manager too. I suggested that one of my Russians Russian-speaking friends in Dallas would be a good business manager. MARTIN asked, through GOPADZE, if it would be agreeable if he served as my business manager and I said that would be o.k. I had not requested MARTIN to be my manager, because I thought he was working at a steady job and would not have the time. Early in December, 1963, I signed contracts with JIM MARTIN and JOHN M. THORNE, designating them as my business manager and lawyer, respectively. At this time I felt MARTIN was a kind man and his interest in me was based upon sympathy for me.

Mrs Marina N. Oswald

After returning to Dallas on Saturday, February 8, 1964, I stayed at the MARTIN house. ROBERT OSWALD, my brother-in-law, came to the MARTIN house on Sunday, February 9, 1964, about 10:00 AM. JUNE and I accompanied him to the cemetery to visit my husband's grave. ROBERT recommended that I leave the MARTIN house, and I agreed to do so. He suggested that I come and live with him at Denton, Texas, which I agreed to do. He told me that it was my own decision to make as to whether I should dismiss MARTIN and THORNE as my manager and attorney. I told him that I desired to dismiss them and ROBERT agreed that this was a wise decision. That day ROBERT took me and my children to his house in Denton, Texas.

The next day, Monday, I was taken to the doctor by VADA, ROBERT's wife, and we stopped by the MARTIN house, where I picked up my clothes.

On February 13, 1964, I talked to MR. WILLIAM A.

MC KENSIE, an attorney in Dallas, upon the suggestion of ROBERT

OSWALD, MR. and MRS. DECLAN FORD, friends of mine with whom

<sup>NEW PESTICIDE WENT WITH ME TO MCKENZIE'S OFFICE. MRS. FORD TRANSLATED FOR ME.</sup> MC KENSIE told me that he could not represent me until I advised both MARTIN and THORNE by registered letter that I was dismissing them as business manager and attorney, respectively. On February 14, 1964, MR. FORD wrote these letters for me and on the advice of MR. FORD and his wife, I signed them. MR. MC KENSIE is now my attorney.

After going with ROBERT to his home on Sunday,

February 9, 1964, I decided that I wanted to reside in Dallas.

I knew MRS. DECLAN FORD, whom I know as KATHY, and trusted her as a friend. KATHY came to see me at ROBERT's house and I asked her if I could come to live with her temporarily and she invited me to do so. Last Tuesday, February 11, 1964, I
