Dear Mr. Oswald:

We have received your recent letter concerning your desire to return to the United States. Your earlier letter of December, 1959, which you mentioned in your present letter does not appear to have been received at the Embassy.

Inasmuch as the question of your present American citizenship status can be finally determined only on the basis of a personal interview, we suggest that you plan to appear at the Embassy at your convenience. The consular section of the Embassy is open from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

The Embassy was recently informed by the Department of State that it had received an inquiry from your mother in which she said that she had not heard from you since December, 1959 and was concerned about your whereabouts and welfare.

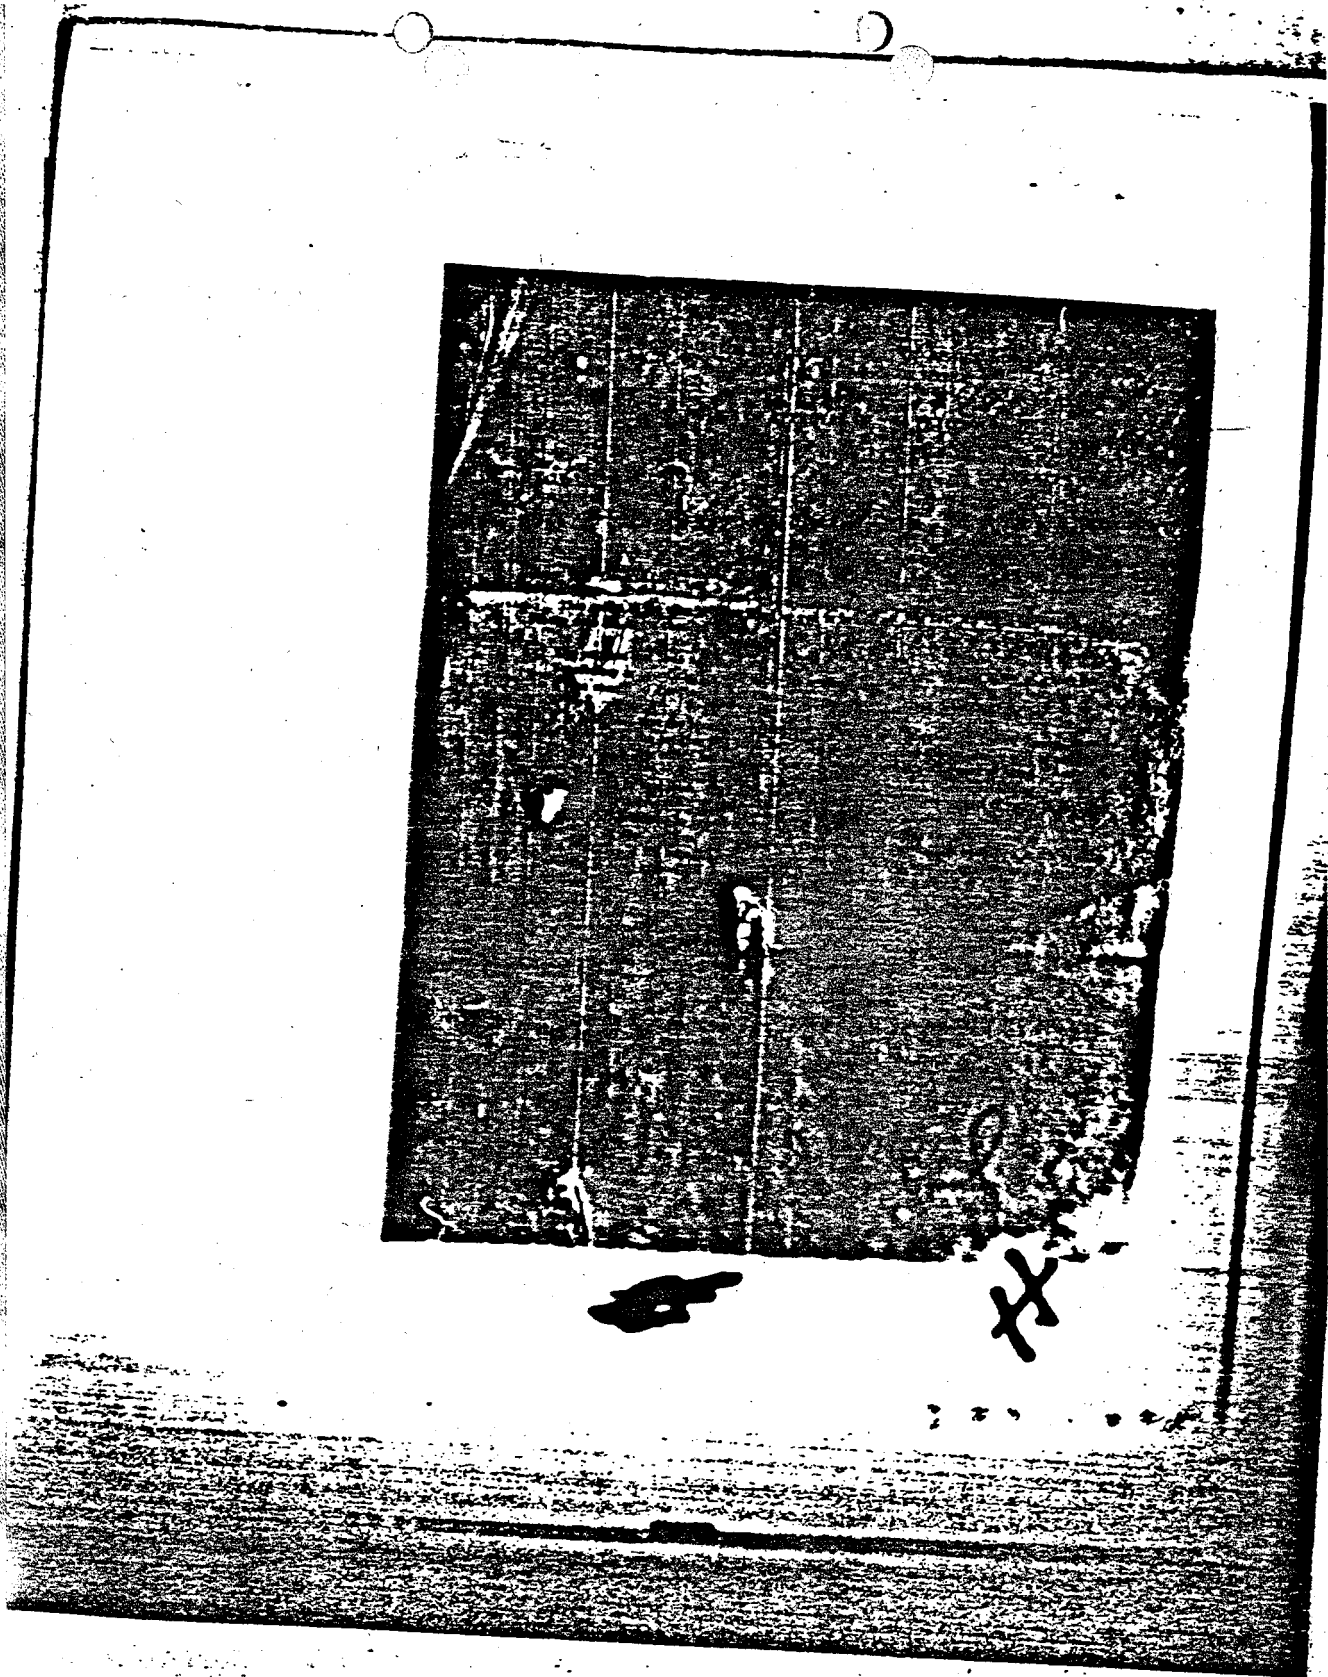

Very truly yours,

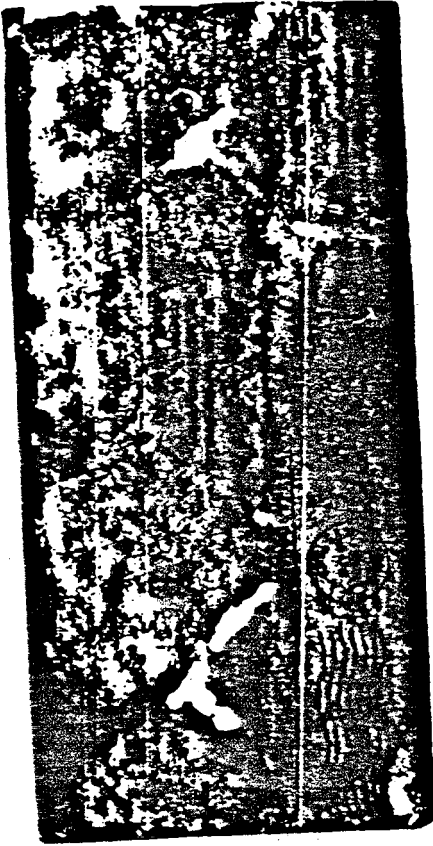

Richard L. Snyder

After repatriation, the recipient will not be furnished a passport for travel abroad until he has reimbursed the Government.

With reference to our previous correspondence on the subject of the support affidavit requirement for your wife, we have been informed that any proof which you can submit showing that you have employment to which you can return will be sufficient evidence to meet the public charge provision of the immigration law. American Embassy,
Moscow, USSR
January 5, 1962.

Mr. Lee Harvey Oswald,
Elizav Kaluzhina,
House 1, Apartment 24,
Klinok, USSR.

Dear Mr. Oswald:

Reference is made to your letter of December 27, 1961, concerning your desire to return to the United States.

The Embassy has not yet been notified of the issuance of Soviet exit visas to you or your wife. Presumably, in your case, an exit visa cannot be issued until you are in possession of a valid passport.

In reply to your questions, a passport can normally be extended at the Embassy within a single full working day if we are informed of your arrival in advance. Following issuance, the passport will be yours to keep until the completion of your travels.

Your wife's immigrant visa application will take somewhat longer to formulate inasmuch as she still lacks an approved visa petition and an affidavit of support or offer of employment. In regard to this latter requirement, there is enclosed an information sheet describing various types of satisfactory evidence which may be submitted in your wife's behalf.

Considering the documentation necessary, you may wish to proceed to the United States first in order to facilitate the issuance of your wife's visa.

Sincerely yours,

Samuel G. Mice

Mr. Lee Harvey Oswald,

I have your letter of March 17, 1961 in which you state that it would not be convenient for you to visit the Embassy in Moscow, and that you do not believe that it would be appropriate to request permission from the Soviet authorities in Moscow to travel to Moscow for this purpose.

The Soviet Ministry of Foreign Affairs has always advised the Embassy that it interprets no objections or restrictions to visits to the Embassy on the part of American citizens in the Soviet Union. As stated in my previous letter, a final determination of your present American citizenship status can only be made on the basis of a personal interview. Certain statements of legal force relating to your citizenship status should be made under oath in the presence of a consular officer.

We suggest that you inform us in advance of any intention to visit the Embassy so as to be assured of an appointment without delay. You may, however, drop in at any time during normal office hours. You may wish to present this letter to the authorities in Moscow in connection with an application for permission to travel to Moscow.

Mr. Leo Harvey Oswald,

American Embassy,
Havana, Cuba,
January 15, 1962.

Dear Mr. Oswald:

Your letter of January 5, 1962, was received at the Embassy on January 11. It correctly advised my letter of January 5 which I presume you have received by now.

On January 13 the Embassy received official notification from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the issuance of an entry visa to your wife valid until December 31, 1962. In order to proceed with her application for a U. S. immigrant visa, there is required from you a letter which she should complete and return to the Embassy at her earliest convenience.

As you were informed by letter of January 5, there are several other documents connected with your wife's immigrant visa application which are still pending. After so the Embassy is aware, the petition which you filed to classify your wife's visa status has not yet been approved by the Immigration and Naturalization Service. However, action required by you to obtain your wife's visa will not become a public charge in the United States as long as you are able to support her. It is your responsibility to provide for her support. The Embassy is unable to assist you in this matter. Will you please advise me of any change in your wife's status which may require supplementary requirements for obtaining the application. Will you please advise me of any change in your wife's status which may require supplementary requirements for obtaining the application.

In view of these circumstances, you may wish to reconsider your decision to defer your departure until Mrs. Oswald's departure is complete, particularly inasmuch as it may prove desirable to do so.

Should you and your wife report after your child is born, it will be a fairly simple matter to have the child included in your American passport. You will be required to submit the child's birth certificate and photographs.

There is no other documentation now required from you. In order to insure that your wife will be able to obtain a passport after a child is born, you should submit a report of birth to the nearest American Consulate. I cannot give you details as to what to do. The only way to know what the procedure will be is to apply to the nearest American Consulate. I will be glad to provide you with a list of American Consulates in the United States and in the various foreign countries.

The Embassy has received your letter and enclosure of January 14, 1942. Regarding the visa question for your wife, we are attempting to get an early decision from the Immigration and Naturalization Service and will of course advise you as soon as we receive word here.
