The main thing is that there was a 25 ft. high monument to Stalin which stood from 1955 to 1961. The demolition of Stalin by Khrushchev, but at the moment of Stalin in Leningrad which was taken down immediately. This included Bronze and marble structure was still for as long as it was due to the efforts of Richard Stolinskiy such as Col. Peter others however, after the 22nd Congress meeting when Khrushchev's main demand Stalin, on Nov. 5. Two days before the Nov. 7 revolutionary celebrations, a force of 100 men descended upon the then Soviet Square (now Lenin Square) and with bulldozers and pickaxes were commenced to tear up (not salvage) the structure.

 They must have been very enthusiastic because next day they had removed the a Tin Bronze statue of a man killed by the older generation and laughed at by the sarcastic younger generation.
 The most remarkable thing about the destruction of this giant monument was that work was ceased on the 6th of November. But started again on the 7th the very day the big parade of workers came by. The monument was right across from the marching stand as it was.
