

1. Q. WHY DID YOU GO TO THE USSR?

I was as a citizen of the U.S. (as a tourist) residing in a foreign country, which I have a perfect right to do. I had then to ask the Soviet people and how their system works

A. What about these letters? I made no letters describing the U.S.!!

Q. Is it you make statement against the U.S. there?

A. What about that, type reading? I was a secretary for the Moscow Journal Radio Liberty, in which I spoke about right winging and what I had seen in various Soviet circles. I expressed delight in all the interesting places, Red Square, the Kremlin, and the people I met. I was accordingly by saying I was a person who had in place and for

3. Did you work there as a clerk or taking work in the U.S. or serving in the armed forces of a foreign state or taking an oath of allegiance to that state? I did none of these

Q. Did all work in the U.S. consider state work?

A. Technically only parts working directly for the state, usually defense, and all other parts are owned by the workers who work in them.

5. What about state etc. you work in U.S. since this party in 1958?

I was approached at this time by a person in the British part after I had formally notified the U.S. Embassy in Moscow of my future residence in the U.S. I was by the newspaper, reporters in Moscow including the AP and the wire. I was notified by the Embassy I did not read them. I was answered questions and gave statements to news wires of U.S. I requested her to let me see her notes, which she refused to, which is the point in Moscow. I was in the vicinity of what I said just after she sent it. I normally called her to complain that she had said things, she said London was very afraid about the U.S. She is now a member of the Red Army sent it) so there would much else I could do it. And I didn't think that the story was even blown out of shape once it got into the U.S. In England the printed story was fabricated conscientiously.

6. Why did you remain in the USSR for so long if you only
I decided in the USSR quickly until February when I quit the Embassy story that I would like to go back (my passport was at the Embassy for softening) they still wanted me to remain for this purpose however it took me about 4 years to get a permit to leave the city of Minsk for Moscow. In this connection I had to go with from the head consulate to the Russian authorities in (the Russians are very bureaucratic and about letting foreigners travel about the country since the war) when I did get to Moscow the Embassy immediately gave me back my passport and advised me on the how to get a exit visa from the Russians for myself and my Russian wife. This long and arduous process took months from July 1962 until _____ 1962. I thought you all about 1 year was spent in trying to leave the country. That's why I was that so long at my job.

7. are you a communist? have you ever known a communist?
No of course not, I have never even known a communist outside of the ones in the USSR but you can't help that.

8. What are the outstanding differences between the USSR and USSR?
Freedom of speech travel together opposition to communist police freedom to believe in god.

anyway, thank you very much; you are a real patriot!!

1. Q. Why did you go to the USSR?

I was in a mood of dissent and protest against American political ideas in foreign country, my personal sense of disillusionment and horror at the misguided line of reasoning of the US toward the people of the world about those things. I made several letters in which I expressed my deep feeling to the American Embassy when in Oct 1959 I went there to legally legitimize my American citizenship and was refused this legal right.

Q. 2. Did you make statements against the US. then?

Q. 2. What about that type recording? I made a recording for Louis Meehan which was broadcast the following Sunday in which a quote about the beautiful capital of the socialist world and all its progress.

3. Did you break laws by residing or taking work in the USSR?

I did in that I took on other of obligations to the USSR.

4. Was all work in the USSR considered state work?

Yes of course and in that respect I also broke US law in accepting work under a foreign state.

5. What about statements you made to the FBI agent and Daily?

I was approached by Miss Morley and other reporters just after I had formally requested the American Embassy to legally legitimize my U.S. citizenship, for a story they were notified by the U.S. Embassy, not by me. I overheard questions and made statements to Miss Morley in regard to my reasons for coming to the USSR, her story was accepted by her later, but in latest issues it is so possible to say she had the threat printed.

6. Why did you remain in the USSR for so long if you only wanted a passport?

I remained in the USSR for so long if you only wanted a passport I did so because I was having quite unfortunately I had plenty of money, one apartment and for lots of girls etc. etc. etc. and I have all that?

7. Are you a communist? you were initially, although I hate the USSR and socialist system I still think Marxism can work under different circumstances.

8. How can you call them a communist? Not in the USA.

1. Staff report to report.
2. ~~Letter to Congress~~
3. ~~Dept. recordings to help them~~

1. Detailed report to the committee, covering night and general activity to day of arrest in various cells, various times, etc.
2. Finding of confessions about the committee - 1944, etc.

3. What are the other differences between the conditions now, except in the U.S.S.R. living standards is a little higher. prisoners are about the same. medical aid and the educational system in the U.S.S.R. is better than in the U.S.A.
