

Dear Robert:

1916
I'll be 40 Aug. I and your wife went into the American Embassy, I cannot visit you with you on this, because the Russians read all letters going in and out. But anyone of them the American program and we are doing everything we can to get out, we are

You don't know what I think of this so I could write a letter about how many people have come and gone since they left.

The Russians can be cruel and very cruel at times. They give a clear explanation to my wife on the point they are made from Moscow, they know everything because they are in and know the inside.

but we shall continue to try and get out. We shall not retreat.
As for your party, we never received it, I suppose they were too late to get it.

I hope somebody will see you and take care of you when you come, I'll come with my wife, you will surprise me wonderful able stand up.

What often your brother is

P.S.
Minnie looks for regards to Vals and you and the kids.
