

PHOTO

The remarkable picture shows Lee Harvey Oswald with the rifle he used to kill President Kennedy and Oswald's wife, Jacqueline Kennedy. The pistol (on his hip) was used to murder Officer J. D. Tippitt, who was drinking tea with Oswald probably and the same rifle is an attorney in Hill Hall, San Edward A. D. also. This strange photograph of the assassin was taken by his wife, Mrs. Marina Oswald. (By Associated Press Wirephoto—Copyright, 1964, by Dallas News Times)

Long Talked-About Oswald Picture

The picture, which is a copy of a photograph taken by Mrs. Marina Oswald, the assassin's wife, is the first time that Oswald has been seen since he was shot on Nov. 22, 1963. The picture was taken in the days before the assassination. It shows Oswald standing in a room, holding a rifle in his right hand and a newspaper in his left. He is wearing a dark, short-sleeved shirt and dark trousers. The picture is a black and white photograph and is of high quality. It is a full-length photograph of Oswald. The picture is a copy of a photograph taken by Mrs. Marina Oswald. The picture is a copy of a photograph taken by Mrs. Marina Oswald. The picture is a copy of a photograph taken by Mrs. Marina Oswald.

ONE SHOT

The picture is a copy of a photograph taken by Mrs. Marina Oswald. The picture is a copy of a photograph taken by Mrs. Marina Oswald. The picture is a copy of a photograph taken by Mrs. Marina Oswald. The picture is a copy of a photograph taken by Mrs. Marina Oswald.