

The law requires you, subject to heavy penalty for failure to carry out orders, to address to your Superintending Cavalier on your person at all times an order of some nature to authorized officials—in the number 4 to your commanding officer upon entering the armed forces.

The law requires you to report, your local board or wrong (1) of every change in your address, physical condition, and occupational status; (2) of any dependency and military status; and (3) of any other fact which might change your classification.
