

and each time he used to come back with more than ten thousand American dollars in the first place, he is not that sort of a hotel business man and in the first place no hotel in Mexico pays that in such short times. They paid him that the Plaza Hotel at Ensenada worth, because the hotel is worth more than $10,000 U.S. Dols. - and as stayed for one day at del Parque in Ensenada, that I can agree with all of his expenses paid, even of the house, from a man who hates Americans. Short time after Kennedy was killed.

Sirs. I am willing to prove all I said in this letter, I want the hateful Russians and the Communist Leaders in Latin America to think that the F.B.I. is good for nothing.
