John J. King of Derver contends he has made a $10,000 down payment to the widow of Lee Harvey Oswald for the rifle and the revolver used to kill Dallas Patrolman J. D. Tippit. Total price of the grisly items reportedly is $50,000.

PETITION

Turned down in a request for a hearing before Rcp. Rogers' Judiciary Sub-committee, Mr. King has petitioned Sen, James O. Eastland (D., Miss.) to appear before the Senate in Committee when the bill comes up there.

Rep. Rogers said his measure ''just provides for compensation" to the owners of the weapons. How much the Government would pay would be up the Federal Claims Court or District Court. The Congressman said claimants could ask for a jury trial in district court.

The rifle, revolver and other physical evidence are being held by the FB1, Rep. Rogers said.

NO TEXAS LAW

But he explained that because Texas has no laws calling for confiscation of murder weapons and because the assassination never came to trial, the guns technically still belong to Mrs. Ostraid.
