Puerto Rican Tells of a Role In Separate 'Plot' on Kennedy

The Kennedy assassination "plot" investigation being pursued in New Orleans was overshadowed, at least momentarily, by announcement by authorities in Manila yesterday that a 24-year-old Puerto Rican had confessed to joining with 15 other persons in a plot against the late President.

None of the New Orleans men cited by District Attorney Jim Garrison figured in this confession.

According to the Philippine National Bureau of Investigation (the equivalent of the FBI), Luis Angel Castillo has admitted, under the influence of truth serum, that he was in Dallas at the time of the assassination, was given a gun to shoot "a man in an open car," but was unable to carry out the order because a man named "Joe" had already succeeded.

Castillo's answers to newsmen's questions were vague and evasive. It was not clear who might have masterminded the plot.

Philippine authorities claim that Castillo, who is being held for illegal entry into the country, is a Cuban-trained agent sent to the Philippines to contact Communist Huk guerrillas there.
