Garrison Charge

NEW ORLEANS—District Attorney Jim Garrison has filed a complaint with the Federal Communications Commission charging that the National Broadcasting Co. is interfering with his investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy.

Garrison's complaint said NBC "has attempted publicly to discredit all known major witnesses of the prosecution."

In New York, the network said Garrison knew that at least one of his two key witnesses had failed a lie detector test on his testimony and probably knew the other was shown to be lying, too. The statement was made in advance of

NBC's telecast of a one-hour news special tonight entitled "The JFK Conspiracy."

"I'm certainly going," Dr. King said on ABC's Issues and Answers program, but "I feel this was a very unfortunate and even tragic decision from the Supreme Court because I think it would give license to many reactionary racist elements in our Nation to use the injunction and contempt process as a way to break the back of the nonviolent movement."
