LSD Indictments

LOS ANGELES — Two hippie types, one of them said to be the largest manufacturer of LSD in the United States, were indicted by the Los Angeles County grand jury.

Augustus Owsley Stanley III, 33, the self styled "King of LSD," was charged with selling the psychedelic drug. Jessie L. Clifton, 20, was indicted on sale and possession for sale.

Stanley's LSD operations are said to constitute a "multi-million dollar business." He is the grandson of a former Kentucky Governor and is said to be a hero to thousands of "acid heads" who know him as "Mr. LSD."

Perjury Charge

TAMPA, Fla., Police arrested Kerry Thornley, part-time author and former friend of Lee Harvey Oswald on charges of prejury.

He was arrested on a warrant issued by New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison, who charged Thornley with lying to a New Orleans grand jury Feb. 8 during Garrison's investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy.

Thornley told the grand jury he did not "think" he met Oswald in New Orleans in 1963, a few weeks before President Kennedy was shot in Dallas.
