Principle of the section of the
, the contribution of the last section to a last of Dep. AD Aday.
0-19 (Agy. 1-58-74)		Dep. AD Admi
		74 vep. no ny
	المُمَا اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّ	Dep. AD INV.
	🛴 🎉 je sa sarakan da kuriya da kariya da kalan ka kariya ka kariya kariya ka ka kariya ka ka kariya ka kariya ka ka kariya ka ka kariya ka	Dep. No Inv. 230 and a 🖊 a grande de la facilità de la companya del la companya de		Asst. Dirat and the second of the second o	in the first of the control of the c	Maste Miles
4.9 Section 4.7 Control of the Administration of the control of	그 바늘하는 중 점이 어디 가는 그 없는 하면 때가들당 경기가 가다니었다.
The region of the first that is not the first that it is not the first that the first in the fir		Admin
プラン (Data All Control of the Control of Co	이 그는 그들은 얼마는 아이를 살아보다면 하다 상황에서 뭐하고 살았다면 나를 취용
And the second second second second second second	그리지 않는 지하는 이 나는 어떻게 되는 아이를 이 하셨다면서 없어 있었다.	Comp. Syst//X
رُورُ وَمِن مِنْ أَنْ أَنَّا مِنْ مَوْدُ مَمْ فَيْ أَرَاهُمْ أَنَّا أَنَّا مِنْ فَالْفِي فَالْمُورُ وَفِوهِ ﴿	지도 사람 위에 있다는 경험 과어 발견하게 하게 되어 가게 된다. 이 아는 문화를 걸어 가장했다.	1547 - 1547
or 🔟 grand aller og frakting frakting 🗗 🗎 🖟 🖟	$~$###################################	Ext. Alioirs
The second control of Files & Com.
	The control of the comment of the control of the co	Some of a trade to the contract of the contrac
	ات الانتخاص في الرئيل والموجود الرياد و النازي الموجود الموجود المحجود المحجود المحجود المحجود المحجود المحجود	Gon, Inv.
	· 🏚 ・
		age f lont.
WW DEFORM PORIOR	I DECENCE OF A OFFICE	Inspection
TYGITCH GIRCH	BISCUSSEU NEDULL	CI Inspection
	Discussed Report	Intell.
		A Property of the second of th Laboratory
a icwain legac	an cal fingeraver	MODIT
PARTICIO CONTRA	an F BL U ndercover	AUCIII Plon. & Evol.
WACUINGTON UN-The Warre .	course we don't know. Doi we	Spec. Inv.
a manage that	Colles 150 don't know. Don	Aceda Alexandra (1996)
Commission discussed a report that.	thought you should have the infor-	Training
Tan Transac Amerald had worked as Lee Harvey Oswald had worked as	mation."	Legal Coun.
an FBI undercover agent for more	Later. Rankin commented that he	A A A A the same and the s	Patel' Bankin foundance char ne	Telephone Rm than a year before the assassination	and Warren had discussed the report of President John F. Kennedy, ac-	the same of the same and the	Director Sec'y
Of Liegident Soun V. Verment	and "we said if that was true and it	The Street Control of cording to a recently declassified	ever came out and could be estab-	A ■ The second of the seco
	GAGE CALLE OUT WHE COME OF CAMPA	· 10 1 1
commission transcript	lished, then you would have people	11 10 m 1 m
Members of the commission, in-	more and a second part of the se	Line UI Kision
Pictuocia or the commission me	think that there was a conspiracy to	OCC. NOLLEY
cluding the late Chief Justice Earl	accomplish this assassination, that	ASS: Noting of Persident committee of the state of the state of the	accombigin mis assessmentally man	lander of the property of the state of the s
Warren and President Ford, who	nothing the commission did, or any-	1 was then a Michigan congressman,	Processing the Commence of the M.92 MIGH & MICHIBAN CONSTRUCT	body, could dissipate."	erving to take credit for having discussed the report at a closed ses-	"You are so right," Boggs said.	solved the case, then, with the uis-Tou are so light. Doggo card	solved the case, then, with sion Jan. 22, 1964.	"Oh, terrible," said the late Allen	cussion about to end, he said, "I think
The transcript remained classified	on, territor, that the Control	Custoff about to charles and Do
The franchipt temanica classifica	Dulles, former director of the Central	this record ought to be destroyed. Do as top secret for 11 years until re-	Intelligence Agency and a member of	you think we need a record of this?"
as top accret for the same on ordhoo	Intelligence Agency and a memoer of	You think we need a record of drist leased to Harold Weisberg, an author	the Warren Commission.	would hope that none of these who had filed suit for its release un-	the training to the tent	Would Hold state and an analysis a
MUO USG THEG SHIP LOT ITS LEGEBE ON	1 Dulies questioned why the FBI	records are circulated to anybody,
der the Freedom of Information Act.		10(0)(0) (1)
OEI the 1 recommendation bearing	would hire Oswald as an undercover	Boggs added.
Weisberg has written many books and articles criticizing the Warren.	agent.
and affices currently the warren	"What was the ostensible mission?"	11.0
Commission's investigation and its		20.61° b-
Commission's miresugation	he asked. "I mean, when they hire conclusion that Oswald, acting alone, to the sent hilled L'onnody in Dale	someone they hire somebody for a
Had shot and killed Kennedy in Dal-	977 - 14 4 to the 100 on Nov. 77 1963	purpose Was it to penetrate the las on Nov. 22, 1963.	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That	1 60
las on Nov. 22, 1963. A conv of the transcript was ob-	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That	1 1 60
· A copy of the transcript was ou-	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That
A copy of the transcript was 60-	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where	K
A copy of the transcript was 60-	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man	K
A copy of the transcript was co- tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man	K
A copy of the transcript was ob- tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Earling general counsel of the com-	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like	Ky leso
A copy of the transcript was ob- tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Earling general counsel of the com-	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like	Ky DAY
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job."	4 Off
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball.	4 Off
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggong Carr, then Texas attorney	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball.	K Jeso
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general that the word had come out.	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements	K Off
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general that the word had come out.	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said.	The Washington Post
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said.
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FRI undercover agent and that they	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the	Washington Star-News
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This	Washington Star-News
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me."	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York)
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me."	Washington Star-News
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right in-	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right in-	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York)
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from Sentember of 1962 up through the	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties." Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented.	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from Sentember of 1962 up through the	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties." Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The Nutional Observer
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from Sentember of 1962 up through the	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties." Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The Nutional Observer
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties." Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The Nutional Observer
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, I. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination."	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties." Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The Nutional Observer
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, I. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination."	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where the discontinuation at all was with the	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination."	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he descripting at all was with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee."	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination."	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he descripting at all was with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee."	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade. Dallas district attorney, who	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he described the place he described the place where he described the place he	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade. Dallas district attorney, who	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he described the place he described the place where he described the place he	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade. Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties." Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskvites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he did conthing at all was with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their fact that	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press.	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the eiements of the Communist parties." Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The need	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press.	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the eiements of the Communist parties." Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The need	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times
tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties." Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need to not need to be the fair that the FBI was trying to maneuver the minto endorsing the FBI probably and described how the FBI probably	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times
tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. I. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," in-	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties." Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need to not need to be the fair that the FBI was trying to maneuver the minto endorsing the FBI probably and described how the FBI probably	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times
tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. I. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," in-	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the eiements of the Communist parties." Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need the p	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times 1777 MAY 1 8 1975
tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of these FBI recepts, as you know," interiected the late Rep. Hale Boggs	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskvites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he described him at all was with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their least hat the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probe and described how the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled.	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times 1777 MAY 1 8 1975
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of these FBI receids, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D.La.) another commission member.	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskvites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he described him at all was with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their least hat the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probe and described how the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled.	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times 1777 MAY 1 8 1975
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of these FBI receids, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D.La.) another commission member.	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do nothing at all was with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their fact had the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said.	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times 1777 MAY 1 8 1975
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," in terjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. "It is something that would be very	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the eiements of the Communist parties." Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not him at all was with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their fact that the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said.	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times 1777 MAY 1 8 1975
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," in terjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. "It is something that would be very	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he don'thing at all was with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their fact had the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said. "They (the FBI) would like to have	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times 1777 MAY 1 8 1975
tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. I. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. "There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. "It is something that would be very difficult to prove out," Rankin an-	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the eiements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he did not him at all was with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their fair that the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said. "They (the FBI) would like to have us fold up and quit."	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times 1777 MAY 1 8 1975
tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. "It is something that would be very difficult to prove out." Rankin answered "There was events in connec-	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskvites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where head anything at all was with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their least that the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said, "They (the FBI) would like to have us fold up and quit."	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times 1774 MAY 18 1975 Date WAY 18 1975
tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. "It is something that would be very difficult to prove out." Rankin answered "There was events in connec-	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskvites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where head anything at all was with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their least that the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said, "They (the FBI) would like to have us fold up and quit."	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times 1774 MAY 18 1975 Date WAY 18 1975
tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. It is something that would be very difficult to prove out," Rankin answered. "There was events in connection with this that are curious, in	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskvites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not him the Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their feet that the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said, "They (the FBI) would like to have us fold up and quit." "They found the man," Rankin said.	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times 1774 MAY 18 1975 Date WAY 18 1975
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade. Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. "There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. "It is something that would be very difficult to prove out." Rankin answered. There was events in connection with this that are curious, in that they might make it possible to	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskvites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not him the Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their feet that the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said, "They (the FBI) would like to have us fold up and quit." "They found the man," Rankin said.	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times 1777 MAY 1 8 1975
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade. Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. "There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. "It is something that would be very difficult to prove out." Rankin answered. There was events in connection with this that are curious, in that they might make it possible to	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where head enoughing at all was with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later they discussed their feather that the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probe and described how the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said, "They (the FBI) would like to have us fold up and quit." "They found the man," Rankin said. "There is nothing more to do. The commission supports their conclu-	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times 177-7 MAY 1 8 1975 Date WAY 1 8 1975
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. "There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. "It is something that would be very difficult to prove out." Rankin answered. "There was events in connection with this that are curious, in that they might make it possible to check some of it out in time. I assume	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where head enoughing at all was with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later they discussed their feather that the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probe and described how the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said, "They (the FBI) would like to have us fold up and quit." "They found the man," Rankin said. "There is nothing more to do. The commission supports their conclu-	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times 1: 7-4 MAY 1 8 1975 Date WAY 1 8 1975
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. "There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. "It is something that would be very difficult to prove out." Rankin answered. "There was events in connection with this that are curious, in that they might make it possible to check some of it out in time. I assume	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties." Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotsky ites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he described in the fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their least that the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said. "They (the FBI) would like to have us fold up and quit." "They found the man," Rankin said. "There is nothing more to do. The commission supports their conclusions and we can go on home and	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times 1: 7-4 MAY 1 8 1975 Date WAY 1 8 1975
tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. I. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade. Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. "It is something that would be very difficult to prove out," Rankin answered. There was events in connection with this that are curious, in that they might make it possible to check some of it out in time. I assume that the FBI records would never	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the eiements of the Communist parties." Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know." Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this and the FBI was trying to maneuver the FBI was trying to maneuver the FBI was trying to maneuver the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said. "They (the FBI) would like to have us fold up and quit." "They found the man." Rankin said. "There is nothing more to do. The commission supports their conclusions and we can go on home and that is the end of it."	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times III-/ MAY 18 1975 MAY 18 1975 WM CA-10 9060 NOT RECORDED
tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. I. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade. Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. "It is something that would be very difficult to prove out," Rankin answered. There was events in connection with this that are curious, in that they might make it possible to check some of it out in time. I assume that the FBI records would never	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the eiements of the Communist parties." Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know." Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not need a person like this and the FBI was trying to maneuver the FBI was trying to maneuver the FBI was trying to maneuver the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said. "They (the FBI) would like to have us fold up and quit." "They found the man." Rankin said. "There is nothing more to do. The commission supports their conclusions and we can go on home and that is the end of it."	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times III-/ MAY 18 1975 MAY 18 1975 WM CA-10 9060 NOT RECORDED
A copy of the transcript was obtained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting, J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. "There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. "It is something that would be very difficult to prove out." Rankin answered. "There was events in connection with this that are curious, in that they might make it possible to check some of it out in time. I assume	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do nothing at all was with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their fact that the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said. "They (the FBI) would like to have us fold up and quit." "They found the man," Rankin said. "There is nothing more to do. The commission supports their conclusions and we can go on home and	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times 1: 7-4 MAY 1 8 1975 Date WAY 1 8 1975
tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. "It is something that would be very difficult to prove out." Rankin answered. There was events in connection with this that are curious, in that they might make it possible to check some of it out in time. I assume that the FBI records would never show it. and if it is true, and of	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not held the only place where he do not held the fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their fair that the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said. "They (the FBI) would like to have us fold up and quit." "They found the man," Rankin said. "There is nothing more to do. The commission supports their conclusions and we can go on home and that is the end of it." Dunies agreed that the FBI was	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times III-/ MAY 18 1975 MAY 18 1975 WM CA-10 9060 NOT RECORDED
tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. J. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade, Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. "It is something that would be very difficult to prove out." Rankin answered. There was events in connection with this that are curious, in that they might make it possible to check some of it out in time. I assume that the FBI records would never show it. and if it is true, and of	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not held the only place where he do not held the fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their fair that the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said. "They (the FBI) would like to have us fold up and quit." "They found the man," Rankin said. "There is nothing more to do. The commission supports their conclusions and we can go on home and that is the end of it." Dunies agreed that the FBI was	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times III-/ MAY 18 1975 MAY 18 1975 WM CA-10 9060 NOT RECORDED
tained by the Associated Press. At the start of the meeting. I. Lee Rankin, general counsel of the commission, said he had been told by Waggoner Carr, then Texas attorney general, that "the word had come out. that Oswald was acting as an FBI undercover agent and that they had the information of his badge which was given as No. 179, and that he was being paid $200 a month from September of 1962 up through the time of the assassination." Rankin said he had talked to Henry Wade. Dallas district attorney, who told him the source of the report was a member of the press. There is a denial of this in one of these FBI records, as you know," interjected the late Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), another commission member. "It is something that would be very difficult to prove out," Rankin answered. There was events in connection with this that are curious, in that they might make it possible to check some of it out in time. I assume that the FBI records would never	Fair Play for Cuba Committee? That is the only thing I can think of where they might have used this man. You wouldn't pick up a fellow like this to do an agent's job." "He (Oswald) was playing ball, writing letters to both the elements of the Communist parties," Ford said. "I mean, he was playing ball with the Trotskyites and with the others. This was a strange circumstance to me." "But the FBI get people right inside, you know," Dulles commented. "They don't need a person like this on the outside. The only place where he do not held the only place where he do not held the fair Play for Cuba Committee." Later, they discussed their fair that the FBI was trying to maneuver them into endorsing the FBI probably wanted the commission investigation handled. One unidentified speaker said. "They (the FBI) would like to have us fold up and quit." "They found the man," Rankin said. "There is nothing more to do. The commission supports their conclusions and we can go on home and that is the end of it." Dunies agreed that the FBI was	Washington Star-News Daily News (New York) The New York Times The New York Times The Wall Street Journal The National Observer The Los Angeles Times III-/ MAY 18 1975 MAY 18 1975 WM CA-10 9060 NOT RECORDED

September 1985

المراجعة المتعددة والمتا

10 Company (1997)

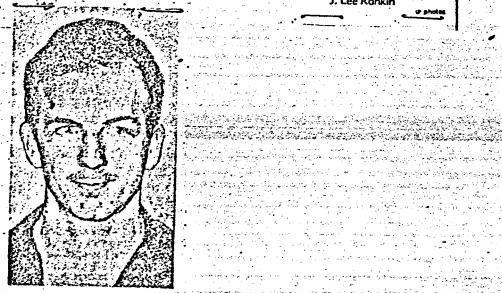

计算数据 医皮肤

in the state of the state of the state of

J. Lee Rankin

Large of a religible region of the property of the

Lee Harvey Oswald