F.B.I. Chiefs Linked To Oswald File Loss

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 Top officials of the Federal Bureau of Investigation-probably including former Director J. Edgar Hoover-ordered the destruction of a letter in which Lee Harvey Oswald, assassin of President Kennedy, conveyed violent threats about 10 days before he killed the President, according to a source familiar with the meeting where this decision was made. The sources said that the decision to destroy the letter, which made threats against the Dallas police, was daken at a meeting of top F.B.I. officials > in Washington on the weekend after President Kennedy was murdered in Dallas on Friday, Nov. 22, 1963.

> The F.B.I. has always maintained that it had no reason to believe that Oswald was capable of violence and therefore had not filed reports on him with the Secret Service.

The source said that the decision to destroy the letter was made because of potential embarrassment to the F.B.I., and not to hinder the investigation of President Kennedy's death.

The existence and destruction of the letter was first reported two weeks ago by The Dallas, Times-Herald.

The letter's destruction was cited by Senator Richard S. Schweiker, Pennsylvania Republican, as a prime reason for his introduction of a Senate resolution on Sept. 8, directing the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence to inquire into Mr. Kennedy's murder as part of its investigation of the F.B.I. and Central Intelligence Agency.

The resolution is pending.
Senator Schweiker said in an interview last week that since he introduced his resolution, his office received information that senathered his resolution. his office received information that strengthened his belief that 17 still-secret reports from the F.B.I. and 23 from the C.I.A. to the Warren Commission might contain information that the public should have that

The order to destroy the letter was relayed to Dallas, where the letter was on file, by one of Mr. Hoover's assistants, but the assistant would never have ordered the destruction of possible evidence except on Mr. Hoover's expressed order, the source said.

Both Mr. Hoover and James P. Hosty Jr., the F.B.L. agent who received the Oswald letter, told the Warren Commission that they had no reason to believe that Octuald was capabelieve that Oswald was capa-ble of violence.

When he testified in April,

1964, before the commission, which investigated the assassination and found that Oswald was the lone assassin, Mr. Hos-

ty said:
Prior to the assassination of "Prior to the assassination of the President of the United States, Ihad no information in dicating violence on the part of Lee Harvey Oswald. I wish the record to so read."

Mr. Hosty, now working in the F.B.I. office at Kansas City, Mo, has refused to be interviewed.

An F.B.I. spokesman said that any comment would be "inappropriate" at this time, because an internal F.B.I. inves-tigation of the incident was under way. The Oswald letter contained a threat to "blow up" the Dal-las Police Department, said the source familiar with the meet-ing that ordered the destruction of the letter.

Mr. Hosty's name, telephone number, office address and a close approximation of his automobile license number were found in Oswald's address book by Dallas police officers after Oswald's arrest on the afternoon of Nov. 22, 1963. Mrs. Paine said that she had given Mr. Hosty's name and telephone number to Oswald, and that Oswald later told her he had gone to see the F.B.L. agent

Mr. Hosty testified that he had gone to Mrs. Paine's home as part of a routine check that he was making on Oswald. He said that a file on Oswald, which had been closd, was reopened because of Oswald's activities with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, a pro-Castro group, and because Oswald had begun subscribing to the Communist party newspaper. Worker.
The file had originally been opened because of Oswald's attempts to defect to the Soviet Union.
