Oswald, Ruby and FBI

House Unit to Probe Gaps in Warren Data

A House subcommittee has opened an investigation into the FBI's relationship with Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby before President John F. Kennedy's assassination, the subcommittee's chairman says.

This is the first official public inquiry by Congress into whether evidence was withheld from the Warren Commission since it reported in 1964 that Oswald was the sole assassin.

Rep. Don Edwards, D-Calif., chairman of the civil and constitutional rights subcommittee, said yesterday that the purpose of his panel's investigation "is not to reopen the Warren Commission — others may later decide to do that — but to set the record straight on just what went on."

EDWARDS SAID that several recent disclosures about the FBI's role before the assassination on Nov. 22, 1963, had convinced members of the subcommittee that the matter required its scrutiny. Edward's subcommittee has oversight responsibilities for the FBI and has been conducting a long-term investigation into the bureau's operations.

He said that the subcommittee had scheduled public hearings for next Monday and Tuesday and had asked senior FBI officials to testify under oath. It may later subpoena FBI field agents involved in various phases of the case, he added.

He said that the committee would concentrate on the following three main areas in its initial investigation:

- The disclosure that the FBI, presumably on orders from its then director, J. Edgar Hoover, destroyed a letter written by Oswald several days before the assassination in which he threatened to "blow up" a Dallas police station unless the bureau's agents stopped trying to interview him.

- Recently uncovered documents that indicated that Jack Ruby, the man who killed Oswald in the Dallas police headquarters, was a paid informant for the FBI.

- The charge by William Walter, a former code clerk in the New Orleans FBI field office, that the bureau warned its Southern field offices five days before Kennedy's death that there would be an assassination attempt with a rifle in Dallas.
