

TO PROBE OR NOT TO PROBE?

A delay of six months is expected before the new Senate Intelligence Oversight Committee decides whether to reopen the investigation into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, Chairman Daniel K. Inouye, D-Hawaii, said yesterday.

Inouye, who spoke with reporters after the committee's first meeting yesterday, said the committee will concentrate first on drafting new charters for the CIA and other intelligence agencies.

Results of an investigation of the Kennedy assassination by the Senate Select Intelligence Committee, which spent 15 months studying the case, are expected to be made public within the next two weeks. Senators who have seen the report are predicting it will raise more questions than answers.

The 172-page report, drafted by a subcommittee, will focus on the performance of the CIA and FBI before and after the Nov. 22, 1963, slaying and will go into the possible motives of Lee Harvey Oswald.

The report is expected to detail both allegedly deliberate and accidental failures by the CIA and FBI to provide the Warren Commission with information.
