

Officers Blamed

SHOULDN'T YOU BLAME YOURSELF* YOUR By Mrs. Oswald

BOY JUST MISSED THE BOAT* DID NOT TAKE

(C) NEW YORK TIMES NEWS SERVICE

FORT WORTH — The mother of Lee Harvey Oswald blames federal and local security officers for the assassination of President Kennedy and for the killing of her son two days later.

Mrs. Oswald, whose son was accused of shooting the President last Nov. 22, has returned to her small house in Fort Worth after being kept in seclusion last week by the U.S. Secret Service.

In an interview Sunday, she raised a number of questions about police procedures and suggested that her son be tried posthumously for the assassination as a way of making known all facts about the two slayings.

"Any guilt I will accept, but I am an American citizen and so was Lee Harvey Oswald," she said.

"These answers I insist upon: Since such precautions were taken before the President's visit to Dallas, why was not this man — a defector — under complete surveillance? I want an answer to that."

Related Story, Page 2A

REPRESENTATIVE TOO

Oswald had defected to the Soviet Union in 1959, at the age of 19, and stayed for almost three years before returning to the United States in 1961.

"INSTEAD OF BEING ANSWERED," Mrs. Oswald, a 56-year-old practical nurse, continued, "IS IT A KNOWN UNDERWORLD CHARACTER BE ALLOWED WITHIN A FEW FEET OF A PRISONER — OF ANY PRISONER — WHEN I COULD NOT SEE MY OWN SON?"

Night club owner Jack Ruby had a police record of petty charges, including possession of a concealed weapon, dating back to 1949 in Dallas. He was mingling with reporters and policemen when he shot Oswald, who was being transferred to the county jail.

Mrs. Oswald was excited and indignant as she spoke Sunday.

Man Kills Minister,

THIS MAN WAS A KILLER, LIKE OTHERS,

Ex-Wife at Church,

OUR PRESIDENT WAS KILLED, YOUR SON

Then Ends Own Life

WAS KILLED.

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP)—An ex-convict armed with a shotgun walked into a church here during evening services Sunday and killed his former wife, the minister and himself.

Police identified the man as Walter H. Bailey, 47. They said Bailey had walked into the West Asheville Assembly of God Church just before the Rev. Lester Cobb, 44, started the sermon and told the minister he wanted to see his ex-wife.

Bailey reportedly had an extended conversation with the minister. Meanwhile, parishioners covered Ruby Bailey, about 40, with coats while she lay on the floor of the church in an attempt to hide her.

Police quoted witnesses as saying Bailey had shot the minister with a blast from his 12-gauge shotgun, then found his former wife and fatally wounded her before turning the gun on himself.

Lester J. Cobb, the minister's son, told newsmen his father had been warned that Bailey had been released from a prison camp two weeks ago and that he might cause trouble. He did not explain why the minister had been warned.

The younger Cobb said his father had talked with Bailey about 20 minutes and, at one time, almost talked him into putting the gun down.

Police said Bailey had been convicted of a misdemeanor before going to prison the last time but had served time for more serious crimes.