Bureau File No.:

Title: THOMAS W. WARD, Justice of the Peace, Garland, Texas;
Detective DONALD W. WHEAT; Officer J. W. CARROLL;
Officer; BOB MORGAN, Garland Police Department, Garland, Texas;
JIMMY GEORGE ROBINSON - VICTIM

Character: CIVIL RIGHTS

Synopsis: JIMMY GEORGE ROBINSON, self-admitted organizer of the National States Rights Party in the Dallas area, advised he was arrested by Garland, Texas, Police Department, on 6/20/63 for assaulting his wife. While victim was in Garland jail, victim's wife permitted two uniformed Garland Police Officers and one Detective from Garland, to search his office at his residence in Garland. ROBINSON considers search of his office located in his residence to be violation of his civil rights. AUSA, Dallas, Texas, advised there does not appear to be substantial ground for violation of civil rights act.

Date 6/25/63

JIMMY GEORGE ROBINSON, 200 Second Avenue, Garland, Texas, was interviewed and furnished the following signed statement:

"Garland, Texas
June 21, 1963

"I, Jimmy George Robinson, make the following voluntary statement to James P. Rosty, Jr., and Donald J. Casare, who have identified themselves to me as Special Agents of the F.B.I. I have been advised that this statement may be used in a court of law. No force, threats, or promises were used to obtain this statement.

"I was born June 24, 1933, Conlan, Texas. I completed eighth grade in school.

"On June 20, 1963, I was arrested by the Garland, Texas, police for assaulting my wife, Lucille Robinson. I was arrested at 5:00 AM, and released at midnight. I was accompanied by my half brother Donald Kaiser that he about 11:00 PM, two Garland police officers and one Garland constable, James A. Brown, accompanied my wife to our residence at 200 Second Ave., Garland, Texas.

"The Garland Police then searched my office and removed some of my literature I had on my desk including the Jewish conspiracy. They also took my membership card for the National States Rights Party. I am the organizer for the National States Rights Party in the Dallas, Texas, area.

"My office is a separate building behind my house. The National States Rights Party rents this office for one dollar a month. My wife had no access to the police search this office as it was not under her control. My membership list was returned, but they kept my literature. They also took pictures of my office and some of the signs I had.

"I feel that my civil rights have been violated because the Garland Police searched the office of National States Rights Party, of which I am the head in the Dallas area, without my consent.

Mrs. PAULINE ROBINSON, 109 East Avenue A, Garland, Texas, advised that she married JIMMY GEORGE ROBINSON on February 12, 1963, and is still married to him. She left ROBINSON on June 10, 1963, following an assault by ROBINSON on her person. Mrs. ROBINSON stated she went before Justice of the Peace THOMAS H. [unclear] and filed a complaint against JIMMY GEORGE ROBINSON. After he was arrested she accompanied Garland police detective RUBY WOODHEAD and Officers J. E. CARLOCK and DON HAYDEN to their residence at 200 Second Avenue, Garland. ROBINSON stated that she consented to allow the police detective and the two police officers to search a small house to the rear of their residence, which small house is a part of a dwelling that she and her husband rented in prior to her separation.

Mrs. ROBINSON declined to furnish a signed statement, however, willingly stated that she consented to allow the Garland police officers to search the premises at 200 Second Avenue which she and her husband, JIMMY GEORGE ROBINSON, were renting.

On June 24, 1963, the facts of this case were discussed with CHARLES E. CANNON, Assistant U. S. Attorney for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas, Texas, who advised that it would appear there were no substantial ground for a violation of civil rights act.

Dallas files reflect that THOMAS H. WOOD, when a police officer of the Garland, Texas, Police Department in 1961, struck one CHARLES W. JONES, a prisoner of the Garland Police Department, when WOOD pulled a knife on JONES. Dallas files reflect that JAMES C. BROWN is the self-admitted organizer of the National States Rights Party at Dallas, Texas, and has been arrested for burning a cross in front of a private residence in Richardson, Texas, on January 20, 1963, and on June 11, 1963, picketed the Federal Building, Dallas, Texas, with a sign reading "Send troops to Cuba, not Alabama."

A characterization of the National States Rights Party is attached.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY
(NSRP)

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont," a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958, issue of "The Thunderbolt," self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP) reported that rank and file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party," with national offices at Post Office Box 251, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November, 1958, a source advised that the NSRP is composed of past members of klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

Issue Number 19, dated June, 1960, "The Thunderbolt," announced the address of the headquarters of the NSRP had been changed from Jeffersonville, Indiana, to Post Office Box 783, Birmingham, Alabama.

On June 17, 1960, a source advised that Edward R. Fields, the Information Director of the NSRP, is the individual who "runs the NSRP."

"The Thunderbolt" continues to publish articles attacking Negroes and persons of the Jewish faith.
