ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F.
KENNEDY, November 22, 1963, Dallas, Texas

On November 22, 1963, U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service Officer in Charge WILLIAM CHAMBERS advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that approximately 2:00 p.m., November 22, 1963, he received a telephone call from a man indicating he was in Fort Worth, Texas, who inquired as to whether or not the International Bridge between Del Rio, Texas, and Mexico was still open in view of the assassination of the President. The person making the inquiry indicated he was in Fort Worth and did not want to make a four-hundred-mile trip in vain.

On November 23, 1963, Mr. CHAMBERS advised that the long distance telephone call was originally that the long distance telephone call was originally accepted by his secretary who stated to him that the man when he called was already on the telephone and there was no long distance operator involved. The man inquired as to whether the International Bridge was still open, and in view of this, his secretary referred the call to Mr. CHAMBERS. The man did not referred the call to Mr. CHAMBERS. The man did not identify himself, but stated that he was in Fort Worth and did not want to make a four-hundred-mile trip in vain. Some discussion was made of the assassination of the President, and the caller inquired in view of that, if the bridge were open. He was advised that the bridge was then open. No telephone number was furnished by the caller. In discussing the matter with his secretary, they concluded the call was made rurnished by the caller. In discussing the matter with his secretary, they concluded the call was made between 2:00 and 3:00 p.m., November 22, 1963.
