the Monkeys Mutual Aid Society, 303 Third Street, Hamilton, Ohio. He advised he was alone and consumed one quart of whiskey while there. From this location he went to Hoppies Garden around 7:30 P.M. and was there for 30 to 60 minutes. He stated he may have made statements to the effect that it cost one and a half million dollars to get rid of President Kennedy, that he had contributed $100.00 of this amount, that it would take four million to get rid of President Johnson, and that he would bet $50.00 that President Johnson did not finish his term. He said he does not recall having made such statements, had no prerogative to make such statements and that he frequently makes comments while drunk without knowing what he says.

He does not belong to any organization other than Monkeys Mutual Aid Society. He said he considers himself a dompletely loyal, patriotic, American citizen and has the greatest respect for the President of the United States and other Government authorities.

He stated that if comments were made by him that the would be without meaning, that he frequently attempts to upset Walter Newman while in Hoppies Garden and may have remarked as above for this purpose. He has never had $100.00 to contribute to any cause nor has he had $50.00 to bet on anything. He said he is employed at General Electric Corporation, Evendale, Ohio, as a millwright in the Maintenance Department where they do general machinery repair work and weekle fence building. He is employed in Building 700 and has identification card number 6993. He works on the 7:00 A.M. to 3:30 P.M. shift, and has been with General Electric since 1951.

Helton could furnish no information concerning former President John F. Kennedy's assassination, Lee Harvey Oswald, or Jack Rubenstein, and stated he does not know and is not acquainted with either Oswald or Rubenstein.
