NOTE:

Dallas in retel states publicity in Dallas papers indicated James Richard Worrell to appear before Commission to testify. Worrell allegedly heard "fourth" shot and states he saw man running from rear of Texas School Depository Building. Based on this publicity, Romack called and stated he, Pate and Rackley were at the rear of this building during pertinent period and they observed no one leaving the building as indicated by Worrell. Rackley of opinion Worrell's story not true.

The President's Commission is being advised of the information furnished by Romack and that we will furnish them copies of the interviews of Pate and Rackley as soon as possible.
