

THE ASSASSINATION

BACKGROUND, DETAILS, INTERPRETATIONS,
PROGNOSTICATIONS AND UNPUBLISHED FACTS

By Gerald L. K. Smith

It seems unbelievable, but nevertheless the fact still remains, that the people who represented themselves as the most intense partisans of the late John F. Kennedy are the very ones who are determined that we shall ignore and forget the fact that this young President, in office less than three years, was murdered by a Communist agent of Castro, who was trained in Minsk, Russia, near or in a special school for assassins. He married a Russian girl whose father was an important part of the Intelligence apparatus inside the Soviet dictatorship.

At the very moment when America is still shocked and stunned, the international propaganda machine, altogether too influential inside the Washington Administration, insists that the American public overlook the Moscovite implications in the assassination of Mr. Kennedy and participate glibly and superficially in launching an era of good feeling toward the very political gangsters who are out to bury us and who have already slaughtered our President.

WARNING!

In maturing our understanding of the Kennedy tragedy, we must never forget that a hidden hand underground conspiratorial establishment is determined that the assassination of John F. Kennedy by a Communist shall not develop into a reactionary wave of anti-Communism.

The whole investigative process having to do with the assassination is suspect. A Communist shoots our President with deadly premeditated calm aim. Anyone knows that a neurotic nut without deliberative processes could not take the deadly aim that Lee Oswald took the day he killed John F. Kennedy.

The warped mood of the Administration in power as well as the mind-washed mentalities of the masses are illustrated by the fact that even after a Communist had killed our President and the body was still warm above the ground, the second most powerful Communist personality in the world, Anastas Mikoyan, flew to Washington and posed as a mourner.

Can the reader imagine what would have happened if before World War II a Nazi had assassinated Franklin D. Roosevelt—can the reader imagine the reaction and the excitement of the press and other communications media if Hitler had sent Goering to pose as a mourner at the casket and the grave of an assassinated Roosevelt?

It is difficult for the innocent, sincere American citizen who does not do deep research on these subjects to realize that at this very moment it is diplomatic policy in Washington to discourage what they call anti-Communist hysteria. Isn't that something!

A Communist shoots our President and the appeasing pals of Khrushchev are afraid that this fact will make the American people hate Communism. It might affect the wheat deal. It might affect 'foggy bottom'. (The State Department's) determination to extend credit to Communist countries and keep Yugoslavia on the preferred nation list, etc.

INVESTIGATION MONOPOLY

The Committee to investigate the assassination of President Kennedy is suspect from the beginning. As far as I am concerned anything in which Chief Justice Earl Warren has a hand is suspect.

In the first place, he issued an irresponsible and emotional remark unbecoming a man in his position. He was all ready with the Communist line to blame the right wing patriots for the precipitation of this dastardly crime. In other words, he had made up his mind before any of the evidence was at hand. He said: "The President was assassinated as the result of the hatred and bitterness that has been injected into the life of our Nation by bigots." Naturally Warren's definition of a bigot is one who is a right wing enemy to the left. A juror in a police court could not qualify for service if his behaviour toward a bent fender case was as emotional and irrational as the first statement by Justice Earl Warren concerning the assassination of Mr. Kennedy. (More later concerning the conspiracy to blame the innocent and protect the guilty.)

Following the assassination we were told that there would be investigations by the following groups, organizations and committees: (1) The State of Texas (the Attorney General); (2) The F.B.I.; (3) The Secret Service; (4) The Internal Security Committee; (5) The House Committee on Un-American Activities; (6) A specially appointed Joint Congressional Committee; (7) A White House Committee. All of these committees and institutions have either been curbed, or cornered, or terminated as far as the assassination is concerned. They have been instructed to turn everything over to Earl Warren's committee. Even before the committee started to sit officially, statements came out of Washington to the effect that Oswald could not possibly have had any conspiratorial relationship with Moscow, Havana or Peiping or the heads of the Communist Party.

No official statements have been made that would inspire contempt for Communism. There seems to be a determined effort to shelter Red officialdom.

A simple question explodes this entire mind-washing fantasy; namely, who in Washington or anywhere knows what went on in Russia during the three years that the Russians rolled out the Red carpet for Lee Oswald?

MARCH, 1964

Any student of Communism knows that Communists are so thoroughly instructed in their skulduggery that they could be instructed in Moscow how to conduct themselves under certain circumstances. When those circumstances arise, they can move and act and perform without any re-checking with authorities and without any contacts which might arouse suspicions.

Shortly before the assassination Oswald was in New Orleans leading demonstrations in favor of Castro and his bloody regime in Cuba. He was chairman of a Red outfit known as the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. This organization defines fair play for Cuba as meaning resumption of diplomatic relations, resumption of trade and no further objections to troops or missile bases 90 miles from our shores. Anyone who gives support to Castro's Cuba contrary to American welfare is a complete and absolute traitor to the United States.

Who is wise enough to know that there wasn't a conference in New Orleans between this assassin and others at which time it was agreed that if the late President Kennedy proceeded with a campaign to invade Cuba and liquidate Castro, he should be assassinated. As will be demonstrated later, President Kennedy took this tough stand toward Cuba just a few days before he was killed. His strong position was articulated in speeches he made on the same trip which brought him to Texas.

PUBLISHED FACTS

Details concerning the assassination about which there is little or no controversy are as follows.

The late President John F. Kennedy and his wife together with an entourage of political leaders and Secret Service men visited Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963, as a part of a political goodwill tour. Factionalism between the left and the right within the Democratic Party had come to the breaking point. The liberal U. S. Senator Ralph W. Yarborough and the conservative Governor Connally were quarreling. Connally, a protege of the now President Lyndon Johnson, seemed to have gotten the upper hand as far as favorable treatment was concerned.

Well in advance of the President's visit a map of the city revealed the route that the President would take. Cheering throngs came out to greet the Kennedys. The American people have a rich tradition of honoring their Presidents regardless of partisan viewpoints. As the Presidential car passed near a building known as the Texas School Book Depository Building shots rang out and panic prevailed. John F. Kennedy had been shot twice and Governor Connally who sat in front of him in the open car had been shot once. The President's young wife did everything she could to manifest affectionate concern for her husband. Secret Servicemen went into action and the car was rushed to the Parkland Memorial Hospital. After a short period of uncertainty it was revealed to the Nation that the shots had been fatal to John F. Kennedy, and that Governor Connally had been seriously wounded. Two Catholic Priests rushed to the bedside but were too late to see the President alive.

Mixed interpretations of the event began to fill t air and the newspapers. This will be discussed later.

Shortly it was discovered that the suspect was at bay. He had escaped from the Texas School Depository Building, and it was later revealed with a combination of a bus and a taxicab on his way toward a Dallas community known as Oak Cliff. His actions were suspicious. He was stopped by a policeman whose name was J. D. Tippit and without hesitation he shot the policeman dead. He fled to a movie theatre and his actions were suspicious enough to alarm the cashier. Other observers were alarmed. The police were notified. They rushed to the theatre, turned on the lights and accosted Oswald. He pulled a gun, fired point blank at the head of one of the policemen. The gun failed to go off and the policeman's life was saved. He was then taken to the City Jail and news concerning his identification began to be revealed on the air and in the press. He was a Communist, a Castro-ite and a Moscovite, who had spent three years in Russia, married a Russian girl and returned to the United States to become a pro-Castro agitator.

The Police Department of Dallas gave full notice of the exact time when they proposed to move Oswald from the City Jail to the County Jail. As they were coming out toward the armored truck which was to take Oswald, one Jack Ruby (later to be identified as Jack Rubenstein), who had been carelessly admitted to the police building, leaped out of the crowd and fired a pistol point-blank into the abdomen of Lee Oswald. This added sensation to sensation and excitement to excitement and drama to drama. Oswald died a short while later in the same hospital where President Kennedy died and where Governor Connally was then convalescing.

Legal processes then went to work. Lyndon Johnson was sworn in as President of the United States and the same plane which carried the corpse of the assassinated Kennedy carried Mrs. Kennedy and the Johnsons to Washington.

The dramatic events which took place in Washington, D.C. are all a matter of record and can be found in any newspaper bearing the dates of November 22, 23, 24 and 25, 1963.

John F. Kennedy was buried in Arlington Cemetery. Later the bodies of his two infant children were brought and buried at his side.

Dignitaries, including kings and queens and rulers of every variety flew to Washington, attended the funeral, paid their respects, expressed their sympathies to Mrs. Kennedy and the family and conferred on the run with the new President Lyndon Baines Johnson.

The most powerful individual in the whole drama could not even attend the funeral—former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy, whose dream had been fulfilled when his son became President, remained in Hyannisport stricken with a paralytic stroke unable to write or speak. The deceased President's mother almost remained in the background, but it wasn't difficult for anyone to imagine how sad she was.

A large, powerful, rich family mourned in chaotic grief.

The above summary is not intended to contain the full detail. It is only to serve as a background for the interpretations and interpolations which are contained in this article. Every American who reads this statement should be thankful that he is an American, because in the larger portion of this world when the head of a government is assassinated, those who are instrumental in his assassination come to power.

The solemn dignity of the American people on the occasion of this horrible event, the manifestation of good taste on the part of Mr. Kennedy's bitterest political foes speaks well for the breeding and the sophistication and the Christian-made decency of the American people who uniformly and universally fulfilled the admonition of the Holy Scripture, "Mourn with those who mourn; weep with those who weep."

The only noticeable symptom of bad taste which came to the surface was in the comment of the broad casters and the editorialists who "jumped the gun" in a passionate campaign to brand the right wing patriots as the guilty culprits, and Chief Justice Warren and his fraternity were among the first to blame the right wing patriots before the killer had been identified as a Moscovite, a Communist and a disciple of Fidel Castro.

THE CROSS AND THE FLAG

THE MOTIVE

It is assumed when a person is murdered that he is murdered by someone who hates him. Therefore, it is reasonable to conclude that since a Communist murdered John F. Kennedy, a Communist hated John F. Kennedy. Inasmuch as Communists think in unison, it is reasonable to believe that the new official mood among the Communists was to hate John F. Kennedy. The naive and the uninitiated and the immature will be quick to say, "Why did the Communists hate him when he treated them with such patience to the point of what seemed like compromise? Was he not surrounded by appeasers who were condemned, challenged and criticized for their left wing sympathies so much so that the right wing leadership such as Goldwater and Tower were building their entire campaigns for 1964 around the mistakes of Kennedy involving an over-sympathetic attitude toward Moscow policy. These conclusions are logical but paradoxical.

As a lifetime battler against Communism, I am bound to conclude that John F. Kennedy would not have been killed by Communists if he had not inspired the contempt of Communists. This leads me to a hypothetical summary, and I invite the respectful attention of the reader.

BACKGROUND

To understand why a Communist would hate the Kennedys we shall review some interesting details in the political, family and sociological background of John F. Kennedy.

In the first place, the Kennedy family is one of the richest families in America. Wealth automatically makes people who possess it basically and philosophically conservative. People who are worth millions of dollars are not in a mood to do that which will destroy their financial heritage and their financial positions.

Former Ambassador Joe Kennedy became a secret enemy of Franklin D. Roosevelt and Eleanor Roosevelt. His contempt for Adlai Stevenson was scarcely surpassed by the pickets who scorned Stevenson's presence in Dallas.

On the eve of World War II Ambassador Kennedy was advertised to the world as a reactionary, an America Firster, a friend of Charles A. Lindbergh, and when Lyndon Johnson campaigned against John F. Kennedy before the nominating convention in Los Angeles he even ventured to hint that former Ambassador Joe Kennedy had been a friend of Adolph Hitler.

On the eve of World War II when Ambassador Kennedy returned to the United States he aroused the contempt of Franklin Roosevelt, the Jews, the British and the New Dealers when he said: "We shall enter this war only over my dead body."

His statement was so dynamic that the reader will be greatly surprised when I report that we of the Christian Nationalist Crusade reproduced the statement of Ambassador Kennedy as constructive propaganda for those of us who believed that World War II could have been avoided.

Younger readers should be reminded that in this campaign which led the campaign to oppose World War II was Henry Ford, Sr.; General Robert Wood, President of Sears, Roebuck & Co., who was chairman of the America First Committee; Col. Charles Lindbergh; the radio priest Charles E. Coughlin, the writer and many others.

This outspoken statement by Ambassador Kennedy effected his isolation from all things political and he was virtually put under wraps and made a political outcast by Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Note: It is reliably rumored that Ambassador Kennedy had prepared a lengthy manuscript which deals with the chicaneries of Franklin D. Roosevelt, but it has not been published in deference to the political ambitions of his family who needed the Roosevelt vote to rise to power and stay in power.

Sensational Fact: In spite of all the left wing proclamations and opportunistic associations with left wing advisors, the fact still remains that one of the largest cash contributors to the Senatorial campaign of the late Senator Joseph McCarthy was the Kennedy family, headed by Ambassador Joseph Kennedy.

Shortly before John F. Kennedy launched his aggressive campaign under the urging of his ambitious father for the Presidency, he had occasion to discuss a certain left wing group known as the Americans for Democratic Action. In commenting on same, he condemned their activities and announced that he wanted "nothing to do with that outfit."

How could such a family with such a background become identified with left wing forces, and how could such a family encourage the compromising philosophies which they had earlier opposed and condemned?

To illustrate: Even at this moment, young Robert Kennedy, the Attorney General of the United States who has inspired intense opposition from the complete right wing leadership, is known to be virtually a hero worshiper of the great General Douglas MacArthur. It is my belief that the Kennedys surrounded themselves with Jews in an attempt to overcome the known fact that Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy has been known as being very critical of Jewish policy. Before his son received so many Jews into his entourage, the senior Kennedy was branded openly by Jewish leaders as an anti-Semite.

Here is the answer. The Kennedys were determined to capture the White House and they were realistic enough to know that as Democrats they could not capture it without the Roosevelt following, the Adlai Stevenson following and the A.D.A. (Americans for Democratic Action) following, and the Jews—the Jews can always deliver the Negro vote.

Anyone who understands the background of the Kennedys knows that they are total politicians. When they set out to win an election, they know that they cannot win without votes, and they do what it takes to get those votes. The Kennedys and their ancestors carried on a political campaign in Boston and Massachusetts which had in it every ruthless reality known to political campaigns. To fine the practices of these old-time Kennedy ancestors in that way is perhaps the kindest description which could be given because no practice known to machine politicians was overlooked in the campaigns of the Kennedys and the Fitzgeralds.

Here's what happened. John F. Kennedy went after the White House and got it, and he accepted the nomination in Los Angeles simultaneously with the adoption of a political platform more completely to the left than any Presidential election platform ever adopted by a major political party in the United States.

Even so, the Communists of America and their affiliated ilk fought Kennedy with a bitterness which some people have forgotten. Their hero was Adlai Stevenson, the friend of Alger Hiss, and the pet of Eleanor Roosevelt. Some people forget that the Jewish political czar of New York Herbert Lehman joined with Eleanor Roosevelt and the Communist Party in a deadly campaign to defeat the Kennedys.

Old Joe and his boys knew more about practical politics and how to capture delegates than even Lehman or Eleanor Roosevelt.

Conscious of the fact that he had defeated the extreme left wing, the young effete Harvard intellectual, who became President (John F. Kennedy) began to lean over backwards to hold and capture the left wing intellectuals, the Roosevelt cult, the Lehman Jewish machine and the very A.D.A. which he had condemned. Inasmuch as Kennedy surrounded himself with Jews and left wingers and Marxist-minded speech writers, why would any Communist want to kill him?

I invite your attention to the hypothesis which appears below.

HYPOTHESIS

Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., the Jew who wrote in the New York Post that Eisenhower should liquidate Senator Joseph McCarthy the way Roosevelt liquidated U. S. Senator Huey P. Long (who was assassinated), surely wasn't so naive that he did not know that the Kennedy family were friends and admirers of the late Senator McCarthy and General Douglas MacArthur.

Knowing this, Schlesinger, Yarmolinsky, Rosten and their ilk insulated the young President with political sealing wax. They cut him off from the logical right and fate even denied this boy the mature and realistic judgment of his father, who by paralysis had lost his speech and was paralyzed in his writing hand.

From then on the policies of Kennedy seemed to be the mangled policies of the Stevenson-Schlesinger cabal. The very element which had antagonized the senior Kennedy was now in power and John F. Kennedy was their prisoner.

He was so blind to the realities of Cuba that when he went out on a national tour in 1960 he condemned public officials seeking office who manifested concern over the Cuban crisis as warmongers who wanted to send other people's children into battle.

Every major policy which he undertook upon the advice of the Marxist, Socialistic, pinko cabal resulted in failure.

Here's a summary of the failures:

1. He appeased Khrushchev in his first conference at Vienna and got the Berlin wall.
2. He followed Stevenson and his ilk in Cuban policy and got Castro and Russian missiles 90 miles from our shores.
3. He followed the advice of the Negroidophiles and while failing to take effective military action in Cuba he literally invaded the South with the U.S. Armed forces.
4. He stood still for compromise and lost Laos.
5. He was seduced by the siren call of propaganda and biased reports and rendered Vietnam chaotic and brought about the assassination of two magnificent patriots. The sadness of Madam Nhu and the sadness of Jacqueline Kennedy parallel each other and were effected by the same sort of people.

6. He overdid himself in encouraging the black which resulted in the inauguration of a 'black revolution', which is now fundamentally out of hand.

7. The Negro problem which was rendered chaotic in the South by outside interference has now become worse in the great Northern cities than in the South.

8. The radical blacks hate the Mayor of Chicago and the Governor of Illinois who they hate Governor Wallace and Governor Barnett.

THE CROSS AND THE FLA

9. He pressed for legislation frightfully close to socialized medicine.

10. He yielded to the sentimentalists and the pressure of the international manipulators in approving a disarmament program which if followed through ultimately and sincerely would disarm our people and subject us to a world military dictatorship under United Nations control.

11. He pressed for the adoption of Civil Rights legislation which could result in a military dictatorship. Under the pressure of this same left wing cabal, he permitted the prestige of the national administration to fulfill the Nuclear Test Ban Treaty, which in the judgment of mature patriots was a form of semi-surrender to Moscow.

Again the question is raised: Why did a Communist kill a man who had followed the philosophies of Eleanor Roosevelt, Herbert Lehman and Adlai Stevenson as well as the above outline indicates?

HERE IS MY THEORY

Keeping in mind that the Kennedys go with the vote, let the reader be reminded that the radical Reuthers, trained in Moscow, issued a statement a few weeks before the assassination in which they said: "Let's face it. The right wing is in the ascendancy. They are winning."

I have had much contact with practical politicians through the years. I hope it does not sound like a boast when I say, I know how these men think, and I can imagine that an inner-circle conference was held make-up of the political realists within the orbit of the Kennedy confidence and something about as follows might have been spoken by John F. Kennedy, or Robert Kennedy, or both: "We are about to become a one-term Administration. We have allowed these left wing fanatics to lead us into one mistake after another. We have lost the South completely. Confidential polls reveal that from 67 per cent to thirty per cent of the white vote in the large Northern cities has shifted over from the Democratic Party to the opposition party. Goldwater symbolizes the rising reaction against Berlin policy, Laos policy, Vietnam policy, Cuban policy, Southern states policy and 'black revolution' policy. We are in trouble. We are headed for defeat. We must make a gesture toward the right, and the most dramatic gesture we can make is to destroy Castro and re-establish the patriots in Cuba."

Consistent with the above hypothetical statement Robert Kennedy went before the Judiciary Committee and asked for a more temperate Civil Rights Bill than the black agitators wanted. For this he was virtually branded as a doublecrosser by M. L. King whose ideological mentor is Bayard Rustin, the notorious agitator who got his political start as a member of the Young Communist League.

Pinks, liberals and left wingers in the woodwork of the New Frontier regime accused the President of dragging his feet in the support of New Frontier legislation in the Congress. They believed that if J.F.K. had cracked the whip, this legislation would have passed.

The propagandists and the mind-washers began to undermine the legislative body and tried to develop among the people a contempt for the Congress of the United States. J.F.K. refused to go along with this strategy.

In plain words, I hold the theory that John F. Kennedy had already doublecrossed the left wing elements and was preparing to demolish the Goldwater strategy by making certain right wing pronouncements. His first open gesture in this hypothetical strategy was in his Florida speech in which he virtually promised the liquidation of Castro and his regime.

I have no desire to simplify the explanation of the dramatic events which followed, but here is a place for a sentence to read as follows: "One day he promised the liquidation of Castro and a few days later he was assassinated by a Castro-ite."

The apartment house in which Jack Ruby (alias Rubenstein) lived. Oswald was running toward this address when stopped by Officer Tippett whom Oswald killed.

There is your answer, dear reader. A brilliant opportunistic politician leaned over backwards to hold the left, but the left could not be satisfied, and he alienated not only the right, but the moderates and the independents. He was about to take a stand in a desperate attempt to be re-elected and do honor to his family. He was cut off. He was murdered by a Communist. Was this Communist just an independent screwball, or was he a part of the Red establishment, the international machine, a deadly assassination squad? This will be discussed later.

COMMUNISTS KNOW THEIR ENEMIES

The day John F. Kennedy was shot, I was in Tulsa, Oklahoma, my hometown, and my place of residence. I was having lunch with my wife, my secretary, Renata Legant, and my faithful aid Charles F. Robertson at the Mayo Hotel. There was a television set in the dining room and while we were in the midst of our lunch the report of the dastardly act came over the air. It was so shocking that I was compelled to exercise control to avoid sobbing. There are few people in America whose background qualified them for the understanding of this event as I was qualified. That is not a boast, because on September 8, 1935, as I walked beside the late Senator Huey P. Long through the vestibule of the Louisiana State Capitol, Karl Weis stepped out from behind a marble pillar and shot Senator Long. His gun moved toward me, but the killer was instantly killed by a guard. Two days later Senator Long died in my arms in the Lady of the Lake Hospital in Baton Rouge. A little over a month previous to this horrible event there had been a meeting in a New Orleans Hotel and the assassination was plotted. One man said: "I can guarantee that Roosevelt will pardon the man that does it if it is done in Washington." They decided to do it in Louisiana. Huey Long was a man of the people, and to some he was a radical, but no one hated him as much as the Communists. They sensed that he was about to turn a popular following into a reactionary force against Communism.

The logic of this manuscript is supported by the fact that the same man who wanted General Edwin Walker dead, and the same Communists who hated Senator Long enough to crave his death shot John F. Kennedy. Within 24 hours of the Dallas tragedy, I said to my associates: "I have a feeling that the same man who tried to kill Walker killed Mr. Kennedy." All such theories were pooh-poohed by the commentators as so much hogwash. They contended it would be impossible for the same man who hated the right wing extremist General Walker to have assassinated John F. Kennedy.

This brings us back to the axiom well known to mature students of Communism: "The Reds know their enemies, and they know their potential enemies."

They knew that a man who knelt at the altars of Christ and confessed his sins to the Son of God would be compelled some day to draw the line and say, "Thus far and no farther."

I am of the belief that the Communists knew his potential danger to their schemes even better than he knew himself.

One of the strangest reactions to this whole deadly episode is the fact that the mind-washers and the leftist commentators weren't a bit worried about the attempted assassination of General Walker. They apparently had no desire to expose the left wing hatemongers of Dallas. They at no time appealed to the Nation to assume the Freudian guilt for an attempt on the life of one of America's greatest Generals and a patriot of unqualified character.

NOW WE COME TO THE GREAT PLOT

If Oswald had not been caught, if the killer had escaped as originally intended, if the identity of the assassin had remained unknown, the most cruel hat machine ever organized in America would have liquidated with smear, abuse and even assassination the entire right wing leadership. These satanic purveyors of falsehood would have branded Tower, Goldwater, Robert Welch, General Walker, Gerald L. K. Smith and the rest as killers. The very people who plead with us now not to develop anti-Communist hysteria would have promoted a murderous hysteria which might easily have made it unsafe for the right wing leadership to remain in their own homes.

Some hypothecators of mature understanding insist that the purpose of the assassination was to kill the President, hide the killer and liquidate all right wing leadership by smear and false accusation.

Among the most scandalous things that happened was the fact that the Voice of America, financed by the American taxpayer, advertised the assassination as the fruits of right wing reaction even before the killer had been identified. This technique of character assassination was picked up at once by the Moscow radio and even to this date, the Communist Party line is to blame the assassination of John F. Kennedy by a Moscow trained Communist on the right wing leadership America. What a twist! What a lie!

WHOSE MARTYR?

One of the strangest facts in history will prove to be the martyrdom of Kennedy. He died at the hands of a Communist. Therefore, fate and providence, and I would venture to say that God Almighty decreed this young President should never be glorified as a martyr to the left wing prison from which he escaped in death. His martyrdom emphasized the fact that Communism is more dangerous than he himself realized. Every patriot and every honorable citizen fails to emphasize this fact by an increased animosity for Communism will fail to respect the price which was paid for this reality. All partisan lines are wadded out as far as this event is concerned. Intelligent citizens will see to it that he is not memorialized by left wing policies contrary to his own family tradition. The honest way to memorialize the untimely death of John F. Kennedy is to build in the hearts of the American people an increased opposition to the Red machine which killed him.

One of the saddest facts in relationship to this affair is to reflect on a speech which Mr. Kennedy made in Los Angeles about two years before his death. It was undoubtedly written by someone else and is a part of this left wing political prison menu which a part of his daily life. It is a vigorous and almost vicious attack on the right wing leadership and contained a protest to the effect that Communism furnished no real internal danger. It suggested that the Reds were all in hand inside our borders, but the speech failed to point out that it only takes one Communist to murder a President, poison a well or blow up a strategic military installation.

UNANSWERED QUESTIONS AND PUZZLING CIRCUMSTANCES

1. Did the killer mistake Governor Connally for the then Vice President Lyndon Johnson?

2. Did Jack Rubenstein kill Oswald to keep him from talking?

3. How could Rubenstein boast of a passionate affection for Kennedy when he did not even watch the parade?

4. What about the night club entertainer who appeared in Rubenstein's lewd strip tease theatre and says he remembers seeing Oswald there?

5. What about the theory that Oswald was running toward Rubenstein's apartment when stopped by the policeman whom he killed?

6. How could honest men sincerely believe that a plane had been chartered by Rubenstein to fly into Mexico the day of the assassination of Kennedy?

7. Is it true that Rubenstein was in the police station the night before the killing and when Oswald saw him his eyes glared with recognition?

8. How can it be explained that a committee of Jews in Beverly Hills and Los Angeles whose spokesman is Nelson Soll were able to announce through Soll over the radio, television and the press that they would raise money without limit to come to the defense of Rubenstein?

9. What is Rubenstein's underworld background in Chicago?

10. Walter Winchell reported that the Jew, Stanley Marcus, head of the much advertised Neiman-Marcus mercantile company, pled with President Kennedy not to come to Dallas. What did he know, if anything, that panicked him concerning this matter?

11. Why did a man who signed his name Bernard Weissman buy a paid ad in a Dallas paper challenging President Kennedy and bordering the ad with a wide black border similar to the border which surrounds death notices?

12. Was the extreme right wing contents of the ad designed to cast suspicion in the wrong direction?

13. Why does Mrs. Oswald, the mother of the assassin, insist that the night before her son was killed the F.B.I. showed her a picture and asked her to identify it? She did not recognize the picture until Rubenstein's picture appeared in the press. Now she insists, although the F.B.I. denies it, that the picture was that of Rubenstein.

ington Bureau and the Fort Worth Press insist as he did on December 3 that the date for Kennedy's death was set on October 3, 1963. If this is true, with whom did Oswald meet?

15. Why did Oswald oppose any attempt on the part of his young and attractive Russian wife to learn the English language while he continued to speak the Russian language?

16. Why did Henry M. Hanson of the Chicago Daily News Service write an article on December 5 insisting that the cab drivers of Dallas all pooh-pooed the idea that there was no link between Rubenstein and Oswald?

17. Why did Rubenstein's sister admit to the press that she had said concerning Oswald, "Some Communist will kill him before he has a chance to talk?"

18. Why was General Edwin Walker able to say that on November 29 an article appearing in the German newspaper Deutches National Zeitung of Munich said in effect: "Following the attempted assassination of General Edwin Walker, Lee Oswald was picked up, later to be released at the suggestion of Robert Kennedy?"

The Dallas rooming house where Oswald lived.

19. Why has the Warren committee been so determined that all other investigation committees be abolished in order that such a scandalously biased individual as Warren can control the conclusions?

20. Why do the editorialists of Egypt and Middle Eastern papers insist that the assassination was a Zionist plot because President Kennedy recently made decisions which were very favorable to the Arabs and very unfavorable to the Israelis?

21. Is it true that Rubenstein was notorious for his association with criminals, dope peddlers, pimps and procurers in general?

22. Is it true that he protected his operations by paying money to some of the same policemen who looked the other way when he invaded the forbidden area where he killed Oswald?

23. A new twist: Could it be that Rubenstein's inner desire for the death of Oswald was to prevent him from telling about his (Oswald's) attempt to kill General Walker?

24. Why has the press and the ether wave commentators who have been so anxious to talk about the hate campaign against Kennedy been so slow in discussing the hate campaign which almost resulted in the assassination of General Walker?

25. What about Oswald's association with pro-Castro American students in Miami, Florida, when they were about to take off for a tribute journey to Havana?

26. It has been established that Oswald received telegraphic money orders and postal money orders in Dallas. From whom did he receive this money?

27. When Oswald was arrested why did he ask immediately for a certain Jewish lawyer, John Abt? It will be recalled that Abt started out as a Roosevelt New Dealer and was later identified as part of the Communist apparatus. He has been the legal defender of many Communists and was associated closely with the Jew, Lee Pressman, formerly attorney for the National Labor Relations Board. Abt was also on the National Labor Relations Board in the early days.

28. Why was Oswald willing to work for exactly the minimum wage in the Texas School Book Depository Building, located exactly where he wanted to be?

29. No one in the whole drama deserves more protection than the young Mrs. Oswald. Located in her mind must be much damaging information, including her knowledge of the fact that her husband tried to kill General Edwin Walker.

30. There is no doubt about Oswald being a superior sharpshooter. It is interesting to note that while he was in the Marines the superior officer of the Marines was one who believed that an intense screening and instruction involving Communism was not fundamental to the military training.

31. What was the real import of Oswald's visit to the Soviet Embassy in Mexico City?

32. Some mature observers raise a question concerning the connection of the assassination of Mr. Kennedy and the Venezuelan crisis. The Reds might have believed that it could have created a preoccupation which might have permitted the Reds to come to power in Venezuela.

33. A strange coincidence without any significant meaning lies in the fact that Oswald's mother was a baby sitter for the wife of Ft. Worth's most prominent citizen, Mrs. Amon Carter, Jr.

34. Why is it that journalists, tourists and mature observers returning from all parts of the world insist that everyone they talk to in foreign countries of intelligence believes that the assassination was a conspiracy, not the independent act of a killer?

35. Why did the District Attorney of Dallas suggest that the strip-tease night club owner, Jack Ruby (Rubenstein) might have had a more sinister motive for killing Lee Oswald than vengeance for the Kennedy family?

Lee Oswald was a frequent visitor in the University Park home of a Jewish attorney in Dallas? He is alleged to have visited the home twice the week of the assassination.

37. How about the report to the effect that Communist Party literature was found in Oswald's room, including several letters on official stationery of the Communist Party of America, thanking him for services rendered and signed by an individual in New York who is an active Communist? Similar letters are reported to have been received by him on the stationery of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

38. When Oswald was to be removed from the City Jail, it was positively specified that no one was to be admitted except police officers and individuals with press credentials. Who admitted Rubenstein?

39. What about the report that in 1936 a man about 25 years of age by the name of Jack Rubenstein joined a wing of the Communist Party movement known as the Communist Youth Association? The House Committee report on Un-American Activities prepared during the chairmanship of Congressman Martin Dies carries the name of a Jack Rubenstein who belonged to four front organizations.

40. It is reliably rumored that Rubenstein had a room-mate who was a known Communist.

41. It is known that the FBI had made frequent visits to the Oswald home many weeks prior to the assassination. A Mrs. Ruth Pain had befriended young Mrs. Oswald on the grounds that she pitied her and had compassion on her in her troubles. She said that the FBI had visited the Oswalds around October 6 and again some time around October 16. It would be interesting to know how the FBI could have been so interested in the Oswald household without having screened out Oswald prior to the visit of President Kennedy.

42. The National Review, a reputable journal, carried in its December 17 issue the following statement: "In Dallas, a top reporter for a Large East Coast daily learned - 'from an unimpeachable source', he said - that Oswald came back from Mexico City with $5,000 he had not had when he left. When he telephoned (so that the wire services couldn't copy it) his story, it stirred up a sensation at his paper, which rushed it to the front page - but the managing editor ran into the press room to kill it at the last moment, substituting some filler on LBJ instead. Naturally speculation has been running high among the paper's personnel: what was the 'unimpeachable source'? and why was the story junked?"

43. According to the Houston Press for December 4 in a page one article policemen were frequent visitors without charge to the Rubenstein burlesque hangout. On the occasion when Rubenstein introduced four plainclothes detectives to girls connected with the burlesque show he considered, according to the Houston story, that he had done the police a noble service, and therefore expected favors in return.

44. Who can explain why the Dallas police were given a list of rightists to work on, but were not told that a Communist and an expert filler was working in a building on the Presidential parade route.

45. We need to know more about a news conference which was held in the Brazilian Embassy reception in Havana where Castro when interviewed warned that John F. Kennedy and Robert Kennedy were not immune to assassination.

46. We need to know more about the man who worked in the Textbook Building from which the President was shot who also belonged to the Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

47. The two American officials who helped get the money to finance Oswald's return from Russia were Lewellyn Thompson, then Ambassador to Moscow and now a top advisor to Secretary of State Dean Rusk; and Abraham Chayes, chief legal officer of the State Department. Such facts are responsible for an examination of a very high level of the State Department which is now being carried on by the Judiciary Committee of the U. S. Senate.

48. It is known that Oswald was a member of a semi-military unit in Russia where he had opportunity to improve his skill in sharpshooting.

49. Congressman Michael Feighan of Ohio is making a deep investigation of the State Department's role in facilitating the plans of Lee Oswald during his visit to and exit from Russia. Others besides Thompson and Chayes to be questioned concerning the matter are Abba Schwartz, head of the Bureau of Security & Consular Affairs, and Miss Frances Knight, passport director.

50. Congressman Feighan is very curious concerning an Intelligence report which has come out to the effect that there is a special school for assassins near Minsk, Russia, where Oswald worked in a factory.

WHAT OF THE FUTURE?

Lyndon Johnson, the total politician, is President of the United States. Total politicians are never statesmen. They will do whatever it takes to get the vote required for election.

The defeat of Johnson does not appear possible at this time. If the Republicans had anyone to offer, it would be different, but they will not nominate a real right winger. They will nominate a compromise candidate who can qualify as a 'good loser', and even if a Nixon or a Rockefeller were elected he would not be any better than Johnson.

There is one asset in having a total politician for President or for any public office. He will conform to the will of the voters regardless of what that will is. This challenges the right wing elements to continue to enlighten the people toward a victorious public sentiment about which the Reuther boys were concerned when they said: "Let's face it, the right wing is winning."

The hope of the right in conformity with Kennedy was about the same. I am positive that Goldwater will not be the nominee of the Republican Party even though he symbolizes right wing sentiment. It is a known fact that President Johnson does not like Robert Kennedy, the Attorney General. They have clashed on many occasions. In a desperate attempt to hold the Kennedy vote, Bobbie could be nominated Vice President, but I don't think he will get it.

Johnson is determined to hold the South and the nomination of Robert Kennedy would seem to be too much like trying to perpetuate the Kennedy dynasty. Furthermore, there is a belief that Bobby Kennedy had inaugurated a secret campaign to drop Johnson had his elder brother lived. The report became so prominent that that is the reason Johnson insisted that Kennedy visit Texas to quell the expressed opinion which Nixon voiced in Dallas the day before the assassination; namely, "the Kennedys are planning to dump Johnson."

Johnson started his political career as a hero worshiper who idolized Franklin D. Roosevelt. He ran against a Congressman who opposed the packing of the Supreme Court and Johnson favored the packing. As he matured he became a professional logroller politician, trained in the school of Sam Rayburn and John Garner. In fulfilling his political ambitions his chief interest is victory even though it requires "political horse-trading", logrolling and compromise. I prophesy that he will talk loud for Civil Rights and try his best to aid the Southerners with compromise. He will talk like a liberal without alienating his conservative friends. His honor as a statesman is not enough to compel him to risk defeat for principle. If the country goes left, he will go left. If the country goes right, he will go right. He will keep both ears to the ground at the same time. He will look through the keyhole to the future with both eyes at once, and he will do whatever it takes to win regardless of what it means in pork barrel appropriations, patronage, economy, extravagance, left wingism, right wingism. No politician in public life can talk out of both sides of his mouth as convincingly and artfully as Lyndon Johnson.

A FUNDAMENTAL MEMO

Increasingly the propagandists will attempt to represent Oswald as an independent nut, a neurotic screwball with no conspiratorial contacts with the Moscovites, but here is a summary of facts which no mature observer can ignore. The summary appeared on page 6 of the Daily Arizona Republic December 6, 1963.

Whereas the Moscow propagandists are trying to represent Oswald as a C.I.A. agent so they can blame Mr. Kennedy's assassination on the right wing elements, their treatment of Oswald when he was in Russia did not conform with their present insinuations and proclamations. They now identify him as an enemy of the Soviet state, but how did they treat him when he was in Russia?

1. The Soviet employment service directed him to a job even though he spoke no Russian then and could read no Russian.

- h. He had no funds for travel. They gave him funds.
- a. They financed his journey to Minsk where he was given employment.
- d. Employment in Russia is under rigid control and no man can get a job without the complete approval and screening of the Soviet Union.
- e. His identification card was completely approved.
- f. His work permit was completely endorsed, which is quite a process in Russia and no one suspicious of disloyalty can receive this treatment.
- g. His membership in the Russian union was approved.
- h. He was permitted to associate freely and without restraint (although an American citizen) with factory workers. American tourists and visitors are never permitted these favors.
- i. He was permitted to quit his job and travel freely from Minsk to Moscow. It requires preferential treatment just to pick up and leave one city and go to another.
- j. Young Mrs. Oswald was given permission to abandon her job in a land where there is a shortage of workers.
- k. The Oswalds were provided money for bus and train fare for their various journeys inside Russia.
- l. Oswald had no trouble getting his wife and child out of the Soviet Union, a very, very exceptional circumstance.
- m. Oswald had no special mechanical skill, but had no difficulty being employed in Russia.

When superficial investigators announce to the world with a finality that Oswald had no conspiratorial connections involving the assassination they take to themselves a boast of wisdom not worthy of good logic.

CHALLENGE - CONCLUSION

Left wing fanatics will not compromise. They are determined to make this Nation Socialistic regardless of their own personal political future. If the political opportunist Lyndon Johnson surrounds himself with a controlling cabal of left wing brain trusters, including Harvard sophisticates, aggressive Jews and interna-tionalist manipulators, he will be about as helpless as the late John F. Kennedy. My guess is that Mr. Johnson will attempt to surround himself with people whom he can control. If he loses this control it will be because his advisors outsmart him with cunning and misrepresentation.

Johnson, as I mentioned earlier in this manuscript, is a total politician. No one ever gave a better definition of a total politician than the late Jesse Jones of Texas who was head of the Reconstruction Finance Committee and was perhaps the most powerful single individual appointed by the late Franklin D. Roosevelt: "He was a total politician. He felt the need of World War II in order to be elected for a third term."

With that definition in mind, let me repeat: Johnson is a total politician. His aim and ambition will be to control the Administration completely so that he can adjust it to the sentiment of the American people in such a way as to win re-election and to continue to win elections. He will only ask the Congress to pass such legislation as can be passed without jeopardizing his re-election or without losing his maximum influence over the Congress of the United States. He will come to the defense of every segment of society whether it be the NAACP, the Citizens Councils, the Wall Street businessmen, nationalists or the internationalists. Then he will attempt to strike compromises between conflicting groups in such a way as to hold the driver's seat, not alienate Congress and keep in the good graces of the people.

Our only hope of accomplishing anything with Johnson is to build a public sentiment in favor of constructive enterprises in such a way as to make him feel that the way to stay popular is to embrace our principles and our ideals. This is not too hopeful, but as far as I am concerned it is all we have to work with in the light of who is President.

Our real challenge is in the Congress of the United States. The Congress that adjourned at the end of 1963 succeeded through constructive cooperation from right wing patriots in defeating or delaying practically every piece of destructive legislation proposed by the Harvard cabal and the Schlesinger-Rostow-Yarmolinsky fraternity. We can do the same thing in 1964 if we stay on the job with intelligence, courage and consistency. At the risk of seeming trite and repetitious, I again call attention to the great axiom: "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

The three great issues in this deadly moment of American history are the same as they were thirty days ago, sixty days ago, five years ago - and when I say, five years ago, don't forget that there is considerable evidence to prove that former President Dwight David Eisenhower was the victim of international manipulation even more so than the sad young man who was just murdered by a Communist. In fact, the Cuban crisis was apexed and crystallized by the derelictions of President Eisenhower who allowed himself to be subjected to left wing influences inside the State Department and his cabal of advisors. Mr. Kennedy was forced to take the bulk of the blame for the Cuban crisis. There would have been no Cuban crisis if Eisenhower had invoked the Monroe Doctrine, as he should have done.

THE CROSS AND THE FLAG

Here are the great issues of the moment: Treason in the name of disarmament; dictatorship in the name of civil rights; surrender in the name of compromising treaties and agreements with the Soviet Union.

The mind-washers and the Jew-controlled press are so cunning in their misrepresentations that the average American citizen does not realize that these fatal threats are upon us. Nothing but intelligent courage and consistent dedication on the part of Christian patriots can stem the tide which moves in upon us, precipitated by the enemies of Christ.

Let us resolve that we shall rededicate ourselves to Constitutional tradition, Christian faith, national sovereignty and racial self-respect. Let us determine that we will give our lives, if need be, to the defeat of treason, dictatorship and surrender.

SIDELIGHTS

It is gratifying to observe that in all the funeral ceremonies the name of Christ was impressively mentioned, and as the funeral procession marched up Pennsylvania Avenue, a militant hymn was played by a band entitled "The Cross and the Flag."

All o'er the land, the hearts of men are crying,
Chilled by the storms of grief and strife,
All o'er the land, rebellion's flag is flying,
Threatening our altars — and the nation's life...
Lift high the cross, unfurl the flag,
May they forever stand —
United in our hearts and hopes,
God and our native land!

The reader must not overlook the fact that many days before the special investigating committee was appointed, headed by Earl Warren, an article appeared in The Worker, the official organ of the Communist Party, suggesting that such a commission be appointed and even suggested that Justice Earl Warren be made the chairman, in the same Justice Earl Warren who has a record for voting Communist 92% of the time in the Supreme Court.

Years ago a Negro by the name of William Nowell went to Moscow for training. While in Moscow he became disillusioned. He did not confess his disillusionment for fear he would be killed in Russia or on the way home. He pretended enthusiasm and when he returned he contacted some of us who were known as enemies of Communism. Later he made important testimony before the House Committee on Un-American Activities. He was a very intelligent Negro and his testimony was very logical and could stand the test of research and doublechecking. Among the things he told me was the fact that while in Moscow they were taught in detail how to liquidate by assassination public officials.

10 HIGH PRINCIPLES

The ten high principles on which the Christian Nationalist Crusade rests are as follows:

1. Preserve America as a Christian Nation, being conscious of the fact that there is a highly organized campaign to substitute Jewish tradition for Christian tradition.
2. Expose, fight and outlaw Communism.
3. Safeguard American liberty against the menace of bureaucratic Fascism.
4. Maintain a government set up by the majority which abuses no minority and is abused by no minority. Fight mongrelization and all attempts being made to force the intermixture of the black and white races.
5. Protect and earmark national resources for our citizenry first.
6. Maintain the George Washington Foreign Policy of friendship with all nations, trade with all nations, entangling alliances with none.
7. Oppose a world government and a super-state.
8. Prove that the Worker, the Farmer, the Businessman, the Veteran, the Unemployed, the Aged, and the Infirm can enjoy more abundance under the true American system than any alien system now being proposed by foreign propagandists.
9. Safeguard America's tradition in relationship to immigration.
10. Enforce the Constitution as it pertains to our monetary system.
