To Mr. Robert F. Kennedy
Attorney General of the United States of America
Washington, D. C., U. S. A.

Dear Sir:

On April 8, 1964, I took the liberty to write to the Office of the Attorney General of the United States of America. Fate must have willed it so that this information of interest to you and your next of kin did not get to your hands.

Only recently, that is on March 19, 1964, I was given an opportunity to inform the Office for the Protection of the Constitution (of West Germany) as to certain measures presumably taken by the countries of the Eastern Bloc – in this specific case, the German Democratic Republic – to stage a concerted action.

62-109060

I urged your Department to make inquiries through proper channels. It is by no means a matter of presumption on my part to state here and now that if I had been heard in September or October of last year your brother, the highly esteemed President, would not have fallen a victim to such a horrible murder.

I have already communicated this information to our Federal Chancelor in Germany.

Personally, I am very anxious to prevent further evil as long as it can be done within the range of my knowledge.

Sincerely yours,
