Supervisor Calls Russo Intelligent, Hard Worker

By BILL NEIKIRK Associated Press Writer Perry Raymond Russo, 25, an insurance salesman and part time LSU student, is described teams, enrolled at Tulane Uni-Perry Raymond Russo, 25, an amined by the defense Wednes-day in the preliminary hearing for Clay Shaw, was first linked 1964. publicly to the case two days before the death of David Ferrie on Feb. 22. At that time he told newsmen that Ferrie told him a month before President Kennedy's death that "we will get him, and it won't be long." Russo said he did not take any of Ferrie's statements about the assassination seriously until he saw Ferrie's photograph in a newspaper during Garrison's current investigation. He said newspaper during Garrison's time at Russo's apartment.

current investigation. He said be wrote Garrison on Feb. 24, Russo to New Orleans for quesrelating his contacts with Fer-

Russo lives with a young man Russo lives with a young man identified as his cousin, but whom members of his family say is no relation in a white say is no relation in a white say is no relation in a white say is no relation.

the other half of the duplex, deverifying his statements conscribes Russo as "a nice young cerning the meetings in Ferrie's kid. He told us he's helping his younger brother through high school."

scribes Russo as "a nice young a bit. He's the type of guy that doesn't like to hurt anybody."

He said Russo "is real small real sm

She said Russo and his brother moved into the duplex re-cently. "Lots of young folks come in there and have a party once in a while," she said. Had Bodygnard

Russo is one of 10 Equitable Russo in New Orleans. Life Insurance Co. salesmen currently taking a course in un-quiet type who is interested in by his company supervisor as a versity following graduation real fine guy, a hard worker, from a New Orleans high by his company supervisor as a versity

"real fine guy, a hard worker, an intellectual."

Rusco who will be cross ex
Loyola University of the South

Rusco who will be cross exand was awarded a bachelor's degree in political science in

His parents live in New Orleans.

Says Third Cousin Says Third Cousin
Russo's roommate is Steve Derby, 20, a sophomore at LSU.
"We usually go under identities of stepbrothers, but actually we are third cousins," Derby said in an interview. He said he lives in Broussard Hall on the campus but spends much of his tioning by Garrison's staff. Der-by said he saw Russo get hypno-whom members of his family that, called truth serum.

say is no relation, in a white frame duplex near the LSU campus.

Eleanor Durand, who lives in the statements of the statements of the statements converting his statements converting the statements.

Asked how the Garrison inchool."

vestigation had affected Russo,
She said Russo and his roomDerby said: "After it began to > and has a lot of interests-baseball, music and politics. Politics is his second love and baseball is his first."

> Russo "likes to get up in front of people and speak," Derby

Mrs. Durand said she understood from a next-door neighbor that Russo had a bodyguard quere Jr., who played in an amateur baseball league with Barrouquere, a sports writer for the New Orleans Times-Piderwriting insurance at LSU.

A fellow ctudent, who refused to give his name, described Russo as a "a real fine boy — a times," he said: (Indicate paçe, name of newspaper, city and state.)

Page 6-B

Morning Advocate Baton Rouge, La.

Date: 3-15-67 Edition:

Authors

Editor:

Title: ASSASSINATION CT PRESIDENT JOHN F. KEMIEDT 11/22/63

Characters

Classification: Submitting Office:

Being Investigated