St. Sec. 4.

Dean A, Andrews Jr., indicted last week for perjury by the Orleans Parish Grand Jury, will be arraigned before Judge Frank J. Shea in Section G of Criminal District Court at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday.

Andrews was an assistant Jefferson Parish district attorney until he was suspended last week following his second grand jury subpena for questioning in connection with Orleans Parish Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's investigation into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Although grand jury proceedings are not made public, Andrews is reportedly being questioned in regard to a telephone call he received in No-. vember of 1963 from a man whom he identified as Clay Bertrand, asking Andrews to defend Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of Kennedy.

Garrison has stated that Clay Bertrand and Clay Shaw, former director of the International Trade Mart, are the same man, but Andrews has so far not publicly connected the two, or even admitted to knowing Shaw, one of three men accused hy Garrison of plotting to kill the president.
