QUIROGA CALLED BY GRAND JURY

Associate of Fugitive in Garrison Probe

one-time close friend of Arcacha Smith, a fugitive witness in Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's Kennedy death plot stigation, was subpoenaed today by deputies of Criminal Sheriff Louis A. Heyd Jr. appear before the Grand Jury at 2 p. m. Wednesday. The subpoena was issued for Quiroga, 38, and served his wife at their residence, 34 Derby pl. This is the second subpoena which has been served on Quiroga. He was previously ordered to appear on May 10, it was not required to testify that day. Arcacha Smith, now residing in Dallas, Tex., and fighting extradition to Louisiana, founded the Cuban Democratic Revolutionary Front in New Orleans in 1960 and was its head the following year. Quiroga was a member of the front, which occupied offices at 544 Camp until early 1962. He denies any knowledge of the alleged plot to kill Kennedy.

NEW PAPERS SENT
He has said that accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald was a Communist and that he has proof to that effect. Garrison, however, charges that Oswald was an agent of the Central Intelligence Agency and that the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the CIA collaborated to cover up Oswald's involvement with anti-Castro Cubans.

Earlier Tuesday, William

Redmann, executive counsel to Gov. John J. McKeithen, said new extradition papers seeking the return of former New Orleans night club operator Gordon Novel were dispatched to Gov. James Rhodes in Columbus, Ohio.

Sources say that Novel, who was reportedly shot at and wounded by flying glass in Nashville, Tenn., Sunday, has traveled South to hide. Efforts to contact Novel Tuesday were unsuccessful.

The new extradition order for Novel comes almost a month after Gov. Rhodes rejected the first extradition papers.

He asked for technical corrections in the original papers sent back to Gov. McKeithen April 21 and also wanted to know if a federal crime was involved in the D.A.'s charge that Novel conspired to burglarize a munitions bunker in Houma, La., during August, 1961.

DA POWER MAD, CLAIM

Garrison says Arcacha Smith, David W. Ferrie and Novel were involved in the burglary plot.

Both Arcacha Smith and Novel are free on bond.

Ernest Colvin Jr., Arcacha's lawyer, says his client is willing to talk with Garrison about the Kennedy probe "so long as he doesn't have to go into Garrison's lair."

At an extradition hearing Monday in Austin, Tex., Colvin charged that Garrison is a "man who is power mad," and that Arcacha fears for his life if returned to New Orleans.

Colvin added that Garrison uses "the law like a damn club" and "this is the type of thing the governor of Texas should not put his stamp of approval on."

Texas Gov. John Connally was wounded during the Kennedy assassination. No decision on the Arcacha extradition is expected for several days.

THREATENING CALL

Jerry Weiner, Gordon Novel's Columbus attorney, said Novel returned to Columbus after the Nashville incident and then left for a place to hide in the South.

He said he received a telephone call threatening Novel's life Friday.

Weiner added that the call "sounded like it was long distance," and the voice told him, "If Novel doesn't return to New Orleans on his own, he's going to return in a hearse."

The only man charged with complicity in Kennedy's murder is Clay L. Shaw, a 54-year-old retired New Orleans businessman and former managing director of the International Trade Mart.

He is free on $10,000 bond awaiting trial.

DA Says CIA Hides Killer's Whereabouts

By LAURA FOREMAN
Associated Press Writer

The CIA is concealing the whereabouts of the actual assassins of President John F. Kennedy, Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison said Tuesday.

Garrison told The Associated Press in an interview his investigation shows that President Kennedy was killed by a group of anti-Castro adventurers who formerly worked for the Central Intelligence Agency.

"It's quite obvious that the CIA knew who they were," Garrison said, "because they had previously been CIA employes."

He said Lee Harvey Oswald, the man named by the Warren Commission as the lone assassin, was not the one who killed Kennedy.

"There is no question at all about the fact that Lee Harvey Oswald did not fire a shot there," said Garrison.

FIRE FROM FRONT

The President was killed by a fatal bullet that was fired from the front. That was not the only time he was hit from the front. There was a crossfire situation set up, which involved at least two pairs of men in the front, apparently two men behind the stone wall and two behind the picket fence, which is a little bit in back of the stone wall.

The role of the second man in each case was to pick up the actual cartridges, taken on the bounce so to speak, so that the cartridges could be disposed of as quickly as the guns, which were apparently tossed in the back of cars. There were cars parked immediately behind.

In addition to those men in front, they had at least one man in the back who was shooting, although it is becoming increasingly apparent that he was not shooting from the sixth floor of the book depository.
