DA Ordered 2 Beaten, Says Gurvich in Test

Onetime DA's investigative aide William Gurvich told a lie detector examiner in Chicago that Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison once ordered the "arrest, handcuffing and physical beating" of two television newsmen.

The charge was contained in a list of 15 questions and answers released to the press yesterday by Gurvich and his attorney.

THE QUESTIONS and answers were taken from a polygraph test to which Gurvich, a private detective, submitted himself Monday.

John E. Reid, the polygraph examiner, said there were "no significant emotional disturbances indicative of deception in this subject's polygraph record on" the questions.

At one point, Gurvich was asked:

"On May 17 did Garrison order the arrest of Walter Sheridan and Rick Townley in your presence?"

A transcript of the lie detector test quotes Gurvich as answering, "Yes."

Sheridan, a National Broadcasting Co. news staff member, and Townley, a newsman for NBC's New Orleans affiliate, WDSU-TV, have been charged by Garrison during the past several days with public bribery of state witnesses.

TOWNLEY voluntarily posted $7,500 bond after an arrest warrant was issued for him. Sheridan told a news conference in New York Wednesday he will come to New Orleans shortly to answer the allegation.

The next question asked Gurvich was: "Did Garrison order the arrest, handcuffing and physical beating of Sheridan and Townley?"

Gurvich was quoted as answering, "Yes."

Other questions, together with Gurvich's responses, were listed by the polygraph laboratory this way:

1. Were you a key member of Garrison's staff in the Kennedy assassination probe? Answer: Yes.

2 and 3 concerned Sheridan and Townley.

4. DID JAMES Alcock (assistant DA) in your presence oppose the arrest of Sheridan and Townley on legal grounds? Answer: Yes.

5. Did Garrison respond to Alcock, "Don't be so legalistic"? Answer: Yes.

6. Did Alcock say to you that if you and he had been in New Orleans, Garrison would not have arrested Shaw March 1. Answer: Yes.

7. Did Charles Ward (chief Asst. DA) say to you that Shaw's arrest was done on raw political power only? Answer: Yes.

8. DID GARRISON discuss with you and others his plan to raid the New Orleans FBI office with red pepper guns? Answer: Yes.

9. Did Sciambra's (Asst. DA Andrew Sciambra) report of the early interview with Russo mention anything of the plot to assassinate Kennedy involving Shaw, Ferrie and Oswald? Answer: No.

10. Did Garrison discuss in your presence the desire to extend the term of the Orleans Parish Grand Jury for another six months? Answer: Yes.

11. Did Charles Ward tell Garrison that there was no way he could legally extend the grand jury's term? Answer: Yes.

12. WAS GARRISON advised that the conspiracy to commit burglary involving Sergio Arcacha Smith and Gordon Novel took place outside his jurisdiction: Answer: Yes.

13. After receiving the polygraph report, did Garrison bring Vernon Bundy into court over the objection of Ward, Alcock and (Asst. DA Alvin) Oser? Answer: Yes.

14. Have you received or been promised anything of value from anyone for telling about Garrison's actions in the Kennedy probe? Answer: No.

15. Did Garrison divulge to members of the news media the names of three prominent New Orleansians as being accessories after the fact in the assassination of President Kennedy? Answer: Yes.

Gurvich defected from Garrison's staff several weeks ago, paid a visit to Sen. Robert F. Kennedy in Washington and later told newsmen Garrison's investigation was a "fraud."

He has appeared twice before the Orleans Parish Grand Jury, and Wednesday handed jurors copies of the lie detector transcript.

Sehator Lambastes Warren Report Critics

A California senator has assailed critics of the Warren Commission, deploring what he termed a "highly commercialized stream of lurid, speculative, dark and bizarre conspiracies."

Speaking on the Senate floor, Republican Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel said critics of the Warren Commission have falsely fed the doubts of Americans about the facts surrounding John F. Kennedy's death.

At the same time, he said critics have advanced "no important new evidence" to refute the Warren Commission's finding that Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone in killing Kennedy.
