Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
F. B. I.

Gentlemen,

Frequently you come out with a hysterical report on the increase of crime in the U. S. Yes indeed, and the U. S. Government leads the way. You are in a poor position to point your finger at anyone else when your agency is dedicated to concealing evidence which would lead to conviction of the criminals who infest Washington, from the murder of President Kennedy down to the present. You managed to fasten the guilt for that murder on Oswald, a poor bungling agent who was an embarrassment to his government employers and were happy to have him disposed of, so you slick operators framed him. You the great crime buster.
