Re: MISS MARTHA M. DUDA
5457 Schubert Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60639

Enclosed for Bureau and Chicago is one copy each of three letters dated 7/3/67, 9/3/67 and 10/9/67, addressed to Retired SA JOHN WYTHE FAIN (JOHN W. FAIN), requesting that he autograph "two specially cacheted envelopes" for Miss MARTHA DUDA's JOHN F. KENNEDY stamp collection. Also enclosed for Bureau and Chicago is one copy each of the "two specially cacheted envelopes."

The foregoing described letters are signed by Miss MARTHA DUDA at the above address. She is totally unknown to Retired SA FAIN, who appeared at the Dallas Office on 10/16/67 with the foregoing enclosures.

The Dallas files contain no information concerning MARTHA M. DUDA.

Mr. FAIN is reluctant to forward the requested autographs without some information as to who MARTHA M. DUDA may be. Mr. FAIN stated that she undoubtedly could have obtained his complete name and Houston address from the Warren Report.

The Bureau and Chicago Office are requested to check indices on MARTHA M. DUDA and advise the Dallas Office. In the event no derogatory information is available concerning MARTHA M. DUDA, Retired SA FAIN will be so advised in order that he can make his own decision with respect to whether he wants to autograph the items furnished him by DUDA.
