ASSASSINATION OF
PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY
DALLAS, TEXAS
November 22, 1963

Re: [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
Huntington Beach, California

[REDACTED], born May 20, 1962, Albany, New York, was interviewed in the presence of his mother, [REDACTED], at their residence in Huntington Beach, California, on November 24, 1975. Mrs. [REDACTED] stated that her son, [REDACTED] is a mentally gifted child and spends the majority of his time researching news items that appear in local newspapers. In connection with the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, [REDACTED] went to local libraries, newspapers and other places where he could locate information concerning the assassination and then compiled many pages of notes. These notes he has forwarded to the White House over the past four or five months with explanations concerning his idea of who assassinated President Kennedy.

[REDACTED] stated that he meant no harm by sending the telegram to President Ford on November 12, 1975, but only directed it because he was mad when he did not receive any answers to his notes that he forwarded to the White House. [REDACTED] stated that in reality, he had no additional information concerning the assassination other than that information he located in public records.

Mrs. [REDACTED] stated that in addition to sending these notes to President Ford, her son has also contacted numerous public officials and has attempted to discuss with them his future, such as being a general in the Marine Corps, being an astronaut and eventually becoming president of the United States. Mrs. [REDACTED] stated that she believes this is nothing more than fancy on the part of her son and she will do everything possible to keep him from sending any further telegrams or letters to President Ford.
