ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY, 11/22/63 DALLAS, TEXAS

Re Bureau teletype dated 3/31/77.

Re Bureau teletype sets forth appropriate background regarding the George DeMohrenschildt aspect of this case including a summary of Miami Division's interview of "Reader's Digest" investigative reporter Edward J. Epstein and the activities of Dutch journalist Willem Oltmans.

On 4/2/77, Edward Epstein contacted [redacted]

[redacted] Central Intelligence Agency, and indicated to [redacted] that he was desirous of providing information regarding inaccurate statements made by the Dutch journalist Willem Oltmans.

[redacted] suggested to Epstein that he contact the Attorney General or the FBI regarding his observations and Epstein indicated that he would be amenable to being reinterviewed by the FBI regarding Oltmans and the DeMohrenschildt matter.

In summary, Epstein told [redacted] that DeMohrenschildt had indicated during an interview with Epstein that he, DeMohrenschildt, was drugged and manipulated by Oltmans while traveling in Belgium during March, 1977. In addition, Oltmans contacted a Soviet in Belgium, by the name of Evan Alexandrovich Denisov, who was interested in DeMohrenschildt's relationship with Lee Harvey Oswald.
