MAILED 3
cc [redacted]
APR 26 1977

[redacted] surreptitious photograph of James Walton Moore, Agent In Charge, CIA, Dallas, Texas. A photograph of Moore and his daughter was taken surreptitiously as he was leaving his residence, 5145 Rexton, Dallas, Texas, a couple of weeks ago.

[redacted] He displayed a copy of this photograph, but did not make a copy available to the Dallas office. [redacted] furnished a copy of this photograph to House Committee investigators.

ST-126 REC-62 62-109060-774

The rest of the information he furnished was nebulous and nonspecific. It was his understanding [redacted] was requested to make arrangements to have Mr. Moore's photograph taken at the request of an unknown House Select Committee On Assassinations Investigator, [redacted] wanted the photograph taken because they found out that [redacted] House Select Committee investigators are checking on an allegation that Mr. Moore might have been involved in a conspiracy plot to assassinate President Kennedy. The information he has is that House Committee investigators are talking to an individual who stated he met with an individual having Mr. Moore's description prior to the assassination of President Kennedy. This meeting probably had to do with Moore or a man fitting Moore's description meeting with the House Committee's source to talk about the assassination of President Kennedy, or to actually commit the assassination.

The essence of the information he had is that efforts are being made to link Mr. Moore to the President Kennedy assassination. Possibility exists that the "Media" might extensively publicize Mr. Moore's photograph.

[redacted] furnished this information because he is somewhat concerned with the fact that Mr. Moore's reputation or career could be ruined by publication of this photograph, especially if this is just another allegation that does not have substantial factual basis.

He advised that he had no objection to having his identity and the information he is furnishing disclosed to Mr. Moore personally or to CIA Headquarters.

On April 15, 1977, the Dallas Office of the FBI advised James W. Moore that his photograph had been surreptitiously obtained. The above information was also orally summarized for him.

The above information is being furnished for whatever action you deem appropriate.
