Assistant Attorney General
Criminal Division
Attention: Mr. Robert L. Keuch

NOTE: On 11/7/77, our San Diego Division advised as follows:

[REDACTED]
Oceanside, California, telephone number [REDACTED] telephon-ically advised 11/3/77, that she had recently seen on a news broadcast information relating to a possible second person involved in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. This news broadcast got her to thinking about a person she knew in Florida and she, thereafter, furnished the following information:

She was not residing in Florida at the time of the Kennedy assassination but moved there in 1967 or 1968. There she met a Mrs. [REDACTED], wife of [REDACTED], who was residing in the [REDACTED] block of [REDACTED] Orlando, Florida.
[REDACTED] was a [REDACTED] with the [REDACTED] and in 1971 their son, [REDACTED], died and was flown to Miami where [REDACTED] father resides.

[REDACTED] drank to some extent and whenever she was inebriated, she was always telling of being in Dallas, Texas, on a trip at the time of the Kennedy assassination. She further related to everyone that she had been on the knoll area near the overpass and had observed a man lying prostrate on the knoll with a rifle. After the assassination, she saw him run and place this rifle in the trunk of a car and leave.

[REDACTED] does not know if [REDACTED] ever told anyone such as the FBI, the police, or other investigative body as to what she saw. She has no idea if [REDACTED] was ever interviewed and further, other than [REDACTED] word, she does not know if [REDACTED] was actually in Dallas. When she heard these stories from [REDACTED], it was so much later after the assassination that she did not think much of it until hearing the news broadcast as to a possible second person involved in the assassination.
She has kept no correspondence with the [REDACTED], however, related that [REDACTED] was well known in the Orlando, Florida, area and that his father was apparently well known in the Miami, Florida, area.

The above information is being furnished to the Department for whatever action deemed necessary as San Diego is conducting no further investigation in this matter.
