I received your most welcome and lovely letter and many thanks.

My was here several days,
he left Sunday morning to go back to Chicago. I received a letter from him today. He seemed to be feeling pretty good. He has put on a little weight since I last saw him. I'm glad he has quit smoking and drinking. He realizes now what a detriment it was to him. I am heartened that you don't drink or smoke, that is good. I have never smoked or taken a drink in my life.
I have four bottles, none of them drunk and only one another. Two of them are in San Francisco. The one there is a Chiropractor.
I am in good health, try to what is the name of it

people don't know it but there is a world of difference between the natural and the ones you get at the drug store that are synthetic your body cannot use synthetic.

We have been down busy at

My boss Mr. Harold Cook is known nationally. He lectured throughout the country. He has had the show in Chicago at the McCormick place and the Navy Pier.

Jack my heart goes out to you for what you are going through. My prayers and thoughts go with you daily and every other. There is nothing more powerful I'll grant you. I

I put God first in everything.

you understand and can read between the lines why I am writing like this. I am writing to you like a sister. Whatever you do, don't let your moral get low. I know it's hard to do. Remember if "Gods for us who can be against us"
things will turn out much better than you think they will. Don't let your faith waver, may you meet each new day with courage and strength. you don't have asked God for forgiveness which is so important to open the doorway.

The friends that forsake us in times of trouble were not stable friends to begin with. I have often heard it said if we acquire 2 or done well.

Give my love to Eva and Jimmie Let me hear from you when you find time.

May God sustain you and yours

Dear Mr. Ruby.

I sincerely hope that you are enjoying the new host of health.

The friend of mine (Jewish) that I told you went to Savannah quite a lot. I saw her yesterday and she knows Mr. Silvers - real good and is so sorry to have to tell you that he passed away last year, he was found dead in his bed at the hotel.
She told me that his sister married a very wealthy man and Mr. Silvers son had married and was divorced.

I'm so sorry to have to write this kind of news to you at this time but I promised you that I would try to locate him
for you and I would have found him if I had to go there myself.
Mr. Ruby I wrote to Judge

You don't seem like a stranger to me, it seems as though I know you all of my life and you are a very dear friend of mine, and I hope that you will always be.

You see Mr. Ruby I lost my precious Mother (may her soul rest in peace) not too very long ago and it seems as though I'll never get over it but I know that time will take care of everything.

When you answered my letter you made me very happy and it was the nicest thing that happened to me in a long, long time, so I'm asking you to please write when you feel like it as it gives me a great big lift.

I wanted to write a letter to the Editor in Dallas but I was afraid I would be pushing too hard but I will continue to work on

but I've got a lot of determination and I'll fight for the ones that are dear to me - and I feel that way about you because I think you're a very nice gentleman and I know I'm right in my opinion of you, you just couldn't be anything else.

Mr. Eddy please remember my invitation to come here when you can and you can feel sure that you are welcome in our home and will be treated as a member of my

Remember I will continue to pray both day and night for you and believe me I've never prayed so hard in all my life and I know that my prayers will be answered.

Take good care of yourself and please write when you find the time.

May God be with you and bless you every moment of every day and this is straight from the bottom of my heart!

Dear Mrs. Ruby

I have just finished reading your story in our local newspaper "The St. Louis Post Dispatch", I enjoyed it very much. You say about how you worked in Chicago Maxwell St., and other places could not mean anything to anyone who has not been to Chicago, I have walked down those same streets you write about, as I was reading your picture you as a little boy what you went thru. As I read your reaction to the president

Mr. Jack Ruby:

Dear friend Mr. Ruby:

Thank you for your kind note in answer to my first letter.

Now that your trial has started I sincerely hope and wish you all the first class luck in the world for a speedy and complete aquittal and release. To my estimation you harmed no one, broke no law of common sense to either God or Man.

If you did the thing you are accused of, then I say you done all humanity a Great Favor. You exterminated off the face of this earth a Dirty Rat in Human Form. A Dirty Rat by its poisonous bite took the lives of two decent human beings and made an unsuccessful attempt to put the bite on two others. What was to stop him from biting again had opportunity arose. And believe me this opportunity has arose many times much to the regret of others.

I've served on juries before, once on the federal jury, and were I on your jury with ten others like me, you'd be released so damn quick it would make old Judge Browns head swim and Wade faint at the bar.

Again I say Good Luck and Best Wishes to a great American Hero Mr. Jack Ruby. May fate treat him kindly.

Mr. A. Stephenson.

P.S. Drop me a line if allowed. I'd like to hear from you again.

Dear Mr. Ruby:

I hope you don't mind my using the red part of my typewriter ribbon, but the black side is all used out, this is the best I can do, I felt that a typed letter would be better than a hand-written letter. My cousin Eddie Sterchi sent you a letter some weeks ago, I always wanted to write a letter to you, but I wasn't sure of the correct mailing address, so after he got a reply from you, I decided to write you. I know that you have lots of troubles on your mind at this time, so I'm not really expecting a reply letter from you. There must be hundreds of people that are wishing you the very best of luck to you in this case and I'm one of them along with my cousin. I have never been in jail and I hope that I never am, so I can't say what its like, but my cousin has and he knows what its like and he told you so in his letter. Once again, I want to wish you the very best in your fight against the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald, we don't know how this case will turn out, but its always good to hope and pray for the best, so this will be all for now.

Yours truly,

Robert Jama.

P.S. Everyone felt sorry when the late President Kennedy was shot in your good city and so did I. I've been to Texas once in my (cont'd.) movies about the history of Texas and the battle of the Alamo, I'm half Texan, one quarter American and one quarter of German origin all mixed-up into one. It sounds crazy, I know, but I don't think so, I hope that you don't. I like to think of myself as a Texan, when I get some money saved-up, I would want to make my home in Texas, San Antonio I hope. My greatest wish is to have my children to be born in the greatest state of them all, so I may as well end this letter now, good-luck and good-bye.

D.A. Urges Court Quash State Law

The Calcasieu Parish district attorney is asking the Louisiana Supreme Court in New Orleans to set aside a state law so that he can comply with a U.S. Supreme Court ruling.

District Attorney Frank T. Salter Jr. obtained a conviction against Wilbert Rideau, Negro, for the murder of a Lake Charles woman bank employe.

RIDEAU WAS convicted and sentenced to the electric chair April 17, 1961. His attorney appealed the case on the grounds that a Lake Charles television program broadcast a confession by Rideau and therefore made a fair trial impossible.

The U.S. Supreme Court ruled that due process of the law was denied because Rideau's jury should have been selected from a community of people outside the KPLC-TV broadcast range.

THAT REQUIREMENT would force the trial to be held several parishes away. The problem is that Louisiana law requires that any change of trial site (of venue) can only be to the next judicial district—which in Calcasieu's case would be inside the broadcast range.

Heeding the U.S. court requirement, Salter on Jan. 24 asked District Judge Cecil Cutrer to transfer the case to another parish. Judge Cutrer refused. Salter then appealed to the state Supreme Court here.

He said today he is arguing that the state law should be set aside because it is intended to protect the rights of the defendant and the defendant's rights will best be satisfied by a trial transfer.

Dear Mr Ruby,

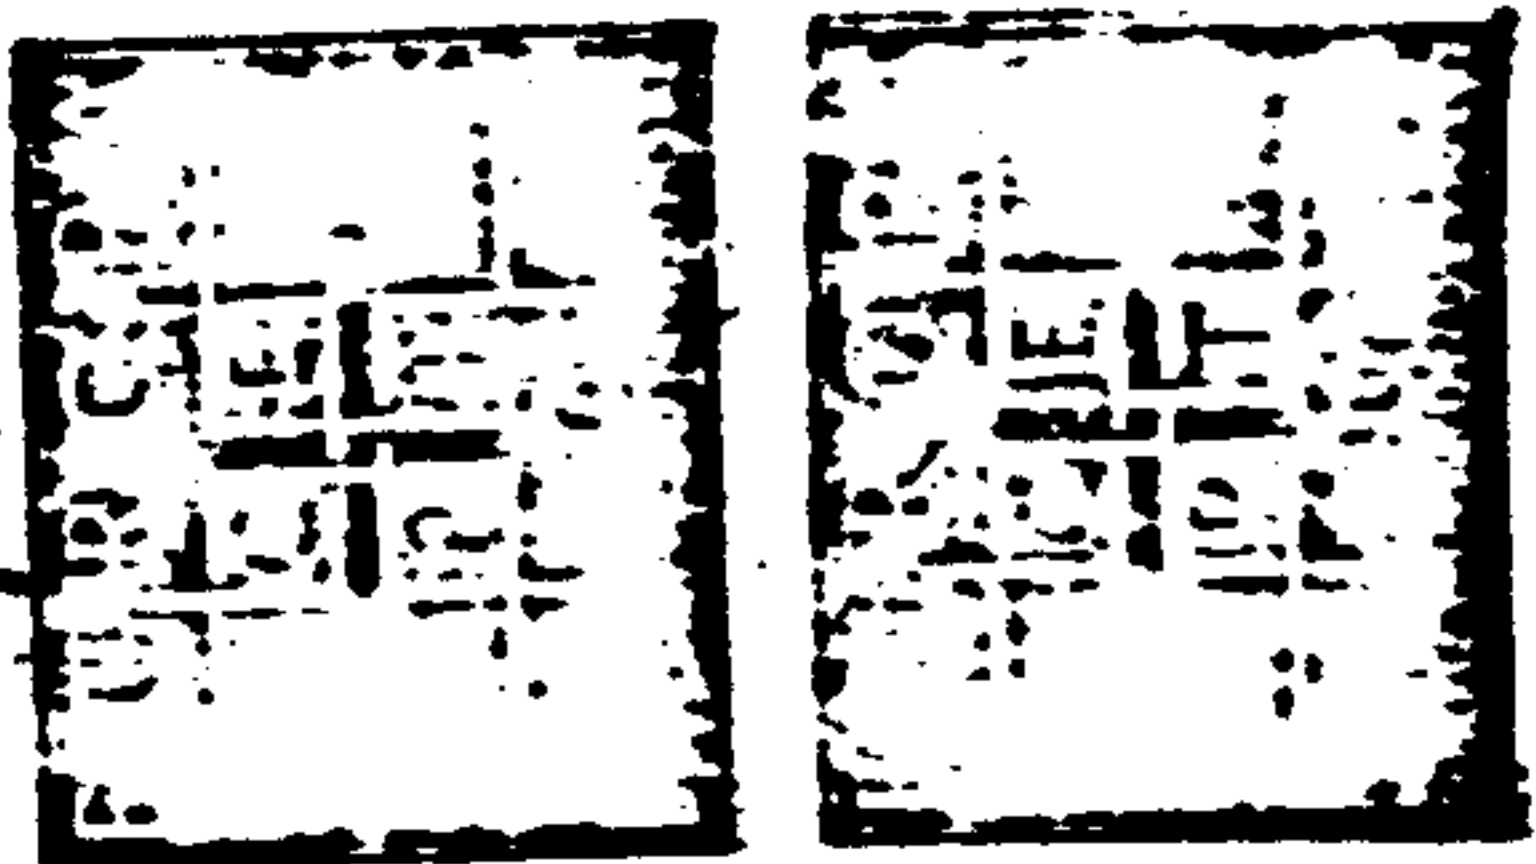

As I sit here sadly reading an article about Jackie Kennedy and how bravely and beautifully she bore her husband's death and think how tearfully and badly I love it, I thought of you.

When I heard that magnificent man was assassinated I was so overcome with disbelief and grief and anger that my only repeating thoughts were oh no God please no - Then I saw the picture on T.V. of that cocky, nothing of a human being and I thought - why doesn't someone kill him - who would not kill a Judas - but then I wasn't thinking sanely.

I don't believe you've brought shame to Dallas. The shame was there.

the whole hate act of them all - so you see - the hate hate was there long ago - I would rather you be true for the

Faith Regained

KING DAVID was called "the sweet singer of Israel." His religious poems, the Psalms, have guided millions to the faith and worship of God. Yet he himself, lived through days of bitter doubt. It sometimes seemed to him, in time of sickness and discouragement, that God had entirely forsaken him. But David struggled against his own doubts. He continued to seek the help of God until he recovered his faith in the Eternal Father and found His help again.

All of us have days of doubt, especially in time of trouble and pain. Let us follow the example of David. Let us continue courageously with hope and prayer and we too will find that "God is near unto those who call upon Him, unto those who call upon Him in truth."

From Psalm 22

My God, my God, why has Thou forsaken me,
And art far from my help at the words of my cry?
O my God, I call by day, but Thou answerest not;
And at night, and there is no response for me.
Yet Thou art holy,
In Thou did our fathers trust;
In Thou did they trust, and were not ashamed.
O Thou my strength, learn to help me.
I will declare Thy name unto my brethren;
In the midst of the congregation will I praise Thee.
"Ye shall fear the Lord, praise Him;
For He hath not despised the lowliness of the poor;
Neither hath He hid His face from him;
But when he cried unto Him, He heard."

Jews Believe...

God is One and Eternal.

God alone is to be worshipped.

God rules the world with wisdom, justice and love.

God's will is revealed through the Torah, nature and human experience.

Israel's prophets and sages have served humanity as interpreters of God's will.

Man is created in the image of God.

Man's primary purpose is to follow the will of God.

Man is in God's care in life and in death.

All men everywhere are brothers.

The well-being of each is bound up with the welfare of all.

Each must give to his fellow-man co-operation, understanding and respect.

Everyone must aid in building a human society based upon truth, freedom and peace.

Judaism is an ancient religion but it is not a static religion. Jews are not governed by a set of fixed dogmas or a rigid creed. The Ten Commandments in the Bible are regarded by all Jews as inspired affirmations of basic Jewish thought. Many Jews also accept the Thirteen Principles of Maimonides as a guide to faith.

The statement on the opposite side of this card, therefore, is not in any sense a creed. It is merely an attempt to state, simply and concisely, certain religious truths which all Jews believe.

Judaism is essentially a religion of deed. The Jew would say, "Actions speak louder than theories."

The one declaration, which is universally recited by all religious Jews and which has become the rallying-cry of Judaism, is the Biblical verse: Hear, O Israel, the Lord Our God, the Lord is One.

Dear Jack —
I have been following your entire case and your trial and I want you to know that I sympathize with you, for, I'm sure you are a great believer in democracy and liberty for all.

The assassination of President John F. Kennedy touched deeply, almost everyone in the United States, for he was the SYMBOL of democracy, justice and freedom, and I don't think the U.S.A. will ever have another man, like JFK, in the white house again.

I predicted he was going to be President of the United States and dedicated a song to him: "AMERICA WILL NEVER FORGET YOU"
