And Helps Decide Case

A judge in Beaufort, South Africa, got an assist from a chicken in deciding a case.

Alfred Michael and a woman neighbor had filed claims of ownership of a chicken. While evidence was being heard, the chicken in question walked into the court and nestled down beside Michael. The judge awarded the chicken to him.

Dear Mr. Pugh:

Human illnesses and emotions are often beyond our power to control, the awareness of this, is surely something God's Supreme knowledge does understand. As one of many who write to your friends, I sincerely hope notable men recognize this fact & shall continue to pray for you each day - adding my best wishes and good love your way.

God lead you when the way seems filled

and dread,
And send the sunshine
of His love
To light the path ahead.

Dear sir;

I have read much of your troubles, which has prompted me to wonder if you did not have similar trouble like I had.

When I was about 70 years old I came across two friends who had just had a fight in front of the corner drug store. A doctor some 35 or 40 ~~###~~ about 185# had just beaten a much older ex mayor an asmetic, had him crumpled down hat and glasses off face bleeding, he up over him cursing and using the most profane language, M.F.SOB. I stood by, two passed by and tried to quiet him he shoved them aside. I didn't think of having anything to do with ^{it} until an ex policeman came in on the other side, so I thought I would go in and help him quiet the man, just before I got to him something picked me up and thrust my whole weight 130# against him with my fist in his mouth. As soon as I came to myself I would not have done so for anything, ^{didn't cost me anything.} I will never know the cause, certainly ^{two} was one of the ^{unseen} powers, that causes us to do and think all

Dear Jack:

Of course, Belli has his hands full, and a lot of guys here are for you. One thing for sure, this States attorney, Wade will be after you. After all, didn't you wreck his chances to be governor?

You'll have to face it Jack, Oswald was more important than you....anyway here's wishing you luck. By the way, I am from your home town, west side, Kedsie and Polk, later moved to that "fine" neighborhood of Western and Harrison...and come to think of it, Belli was once going to take my son's case. I wrote him a couple of years ago from Seville Spain. Anyway, once again, let's see you make it..

Dear Jack,

Just a note to you to keep your chin up. I am following your trial with much interest and can not believe that an injustice will be done in your case.

It is quite evident that the citizens of Dallas, those who have the say, will leave no stone unturned to try and redeem themselves at your expense.

I would say, Jack, that you should not be discouraged if the first trial should go against you. There is the appeal, which as you know will be out of Dallas and will be before different people.

Your attorney in charge, Mr. Belli, appears to me to be a very brilliant man.

In case you have wondered why I have such an interest in your case, I might say that first I approve of what you did. Second, I was aware of the atmosphere in Texas before the assassination of President Kennedy. I have no regard for the "right wing".

Their "press releases" stating that Oswald tried to kill General Walker and now Nixon is ridiculous. They are anticipating the Warren Committee Report.

Remember this, Jack, there are millions of Americans in your corner. Most people have opinions about everything, but lack the guts to back them up.

With best regards, I remain

March 1, 1964.

Dear Jack:

I hope by now you have received my letter. I was about to mail it Thursday morning on my way to work, but, the day before I suffered a strained back, and although it didn't seem too painful at the time, the next morning when I started to move around it was all I could to walk a short distance. I wasn't very bad when I sat still but I suddenly realized that I could not work on the floor a whole day. I decided to call my boss and let her know that her most valuable salesgirl (that's me) was indisposed, and what do you know she didn't seem upset at all by my inconvenience and apparently she believed my story. I guess she thought I was telling the truth - and I was. I told brother "Hy" about it and he said "it was due to old age." Some people don't seem to care about my feelings at all. For that unkind remark when I make soup I'll throw ashes in it - that'll teach him. I have been back to work in fact I'll only stayed home one day as I said earlier "how could they manage without a good worker like myself!") Things are just about the same here since we all work to don't have to much time to give this place the attention it needs. This will have to do for now - hope to write again soon.

How are you? Well okay I guess. I was

Did you see my man? He's the tall

Yesterday I saw two in the Chicago Historical Society and it was interesting. I saw a lot of stuff - mostly about Abraham Lincoln. I saw a picture that was in and in the Chicago file and it just struck me it was all around in it by that and I read the caption and it said they were composites. They looked like charcoal drawings I guess when it was hand-drawn and that's how it was.

P. S. I'll explain about the ITH. You see my real name is Judith and when I was little I thought my middle was ITH.

Hello. His name is [unclear]

You know this world is in an awful mess and men have forgotten God, who gave us our life + all we are and have and the devil hates God and men are trying to put God out of his own country and run it to suit men but it don't work and so soon later the devil is a bad trick master and catches up with all who forget God and maybe you have never had a chance to learn the right way and many say he gave God but like

So many more they get on the devil
net and don't know it until its too late and so you may have been the cause of seeing a lot of lives in your time with drink and bad living but I am praying you some things to read and if you really repent and turn to God for help
He may forgive you and you can spend your life for God and not feel as every day you live yourself some are up or down and so many are ready to push you down but not many to pick you up

Dear Mr. Peck,

Take heart. Many of us are with you.

Dear Jack your trial may be under way before you get the books I am making you. What a contrast in these two books.

I have thought a good many times of the song that was written in England at the time of the Nazi bombings. It came at a time the people needed a moral boost, and heard some thing like this. "There'll be blue birds over the white cliffs of Dover just you wait and see."

What has happened to you could have happened in a good many cities and to many a person. If it had been a premeditated affair I would look at it differently.

I am not a Senator over here

The books you keep as long as you wish. If your attorney can find any thing in them to help you, he would be welcome to use.

We would be happy for you to write your name in them. May God grant you peace.

Dear Jack:

Keep your chin up!!

What you were supposed to have done is done, what was done, is not to be condoned, but you are human, like thousands of other Americans, your intentions at that time were out of "Kilter" and you probably

They've got to give you a fair trial.

Dear Mr. Texan:

In the summer of 1959 a poem was written by me and sent to the Chamber of Commerce at Dayton, Texas. Its essence was to simply identify the geographic location of Dayton. By a coincidence, Dayton, Texas is the birthplace of the then Governor of Texas, Price Daniel.

Seeing a chance for some free publicity, the local "bigwigs" handed the poem with my letter to the local newspaper, who in turn published it on the front page.

The Houston Press and other newspapers in Texas printed the poem and soon the leading newspapers in Boston and New England carried the story —

Their plan had worked — the story was snowballing and picking up speed from day to day.

I was phoned, long distance by the president of Dayton's Chamber of Commerce, who invited me to come to Texas — I told him I would think it over.

After a few days had gone by, the president of the Chamber of Commerce evidently was fretting not to lose this chance of free publicity, he called again, this time making several promises and a challenge to entice me to come to Texas —

I finally accepted his challenge and made the trip with my mother and my wife.

These men wanted publicity on one hand, and to humiliate me on the other. The newspapers were aware of only the "Good" part of the story— They succeeded in both —

A Rodeo was held; supposedly in my honor and an admission was charged to the public, (I did not receive a red cent).

I was asked to ride a horse in the rodeo arena, I was to come in at a gallop, holding the reins with one hand and waving the Texas hat they gave me with the other.

I did this, but no one asked the "Yank" if he could ride a horse.

The next day with the heat up in the middle nineties they coaxed and prodded me to bull-doze a steer, which I did (I have movies to prove this).

I was made to drape the confederate flag around me —

I did all the things I was asked to do good naturedly.

They did not do the things they had promised over the phone and in a letter to me. Their promises was the reason I made the trip.

I left Texas dejected and humiliated. I had to pay all the expenses of the trip from Boston to Texas.

I am a "Damn Yank" to the Texans and my poem opened a door for them to capitalize on the situation and at the same time ridicule a northerner, their feelings were vented — but how small I see those few.

Since then —

Adalai Stevenson visited Texas and he was "Spat" upon — then — our beloved President — John Fitzgerald Kennedy also a Bostonian, was brutally murdered —

I think it fitting and proper at this time, for all Decent Texans to heed the call of the John Fitzgerald Kennedy Memorial Library Fund —

Send some of those Texas dollars to Boston, so that in death, our beloved President may be honored by giving to the American people the library he so earnestly strived for.

Personally, I love Texas, and as a Texas citizen am trying to reach your ears and your hearts to a cause I know all good Texans approve.

Shame Boston and the Nation that "Texas" is not a dirty word up here

Dear Sir,

I believe in my heart that you are a loyal American, loyal to your country and loyal to your President. I sincerely hope that the nice men and women picked to judge you feel the same way as I.

This loyalty must be the reason you saw you shooting Lee Oswald. I feel no hatred in my heart towards you.

Dear Mr. Bell:

I would like to give my experience as an epileptic in behalf of Mr. Ruby. This type of illness can begin at any time, at any age and due to any number of things. An injury, persecution, strain, organic disease, or mental stress can contribute to the onset.

I was treated by a Dallas psychiatrist for quite some time. My illness is under control. The patient knows what his capacity is and must limit himself. A person can do anything he wants to do as long as he is happy doing it and does not over-do. My doctor made the statement he did not know which of these factors contributed to the onset of the attack, but the patient himself has to determine the cause, then keep that factor from causing him disease. A person can also have an attack of epilepsy but helpless to do anything about.

Believe me, a person who commits an act, whether it be murder or what, under duress due to phys. Mental epilepsy, suffers more than any human can ever know, because he is usually doing that which is completely against his true nature.

Have a Happy Day!

Good Luck
And a Wonderful Year!

A Birthday of special gladness
A year of dreams-come-true

The very best of everything
A thousand and

*This is my special prayer for you --
May God be with you all day through,
And in His goodness may He bless
Your future days with happiness.*
