Enclosed are the original and two copies of a memorandum responding, in part, to the HSCA letter of February 17, 1978, sent to Assistant Director Harold N. Bassett and signed by G. Robert Blakey, Chief Counsel and Director, HSCA. A copy of this letter is attached for your information.

The enclosed memorandum addresses that portion of the letter which relates to the Committee's acceptance of the FBI's offer to provide it with the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) release of the "Assassination of President John F. Kennedy" files, together with the classified information in those files which was deleted from the FOIA release.

Reference is made to my letter of February 27, 1978, with enclosure, which advised that eight volumes of classified material had been prepared for delivery.

The memorandum is to confirm past deliveries of classified material and to advise that the remaining classified documents from the FOIA release are now ready for delivery as previously agreed.

You are requested to furnish a copy of the memorandum to the HSCA.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. NICHOLS

Attached hereto is a copy of the Supervisors' Training Course which the writer has worked up to be given to new Supervisors who are taking over their duties from time to time in the Files Division. A review of this course will reveal that it is very brief and incomplete, but I hope worthwhile. An effort has been made only to cover the salient points involving supervision.

The writer plans to give this course of instruction personally about one-half hour per day until the course is completed, at different times. This will naturally take a lot of time and because of this, this outline has been made as brief as possible. There is a great need for an instruction course of this type and it is hoped that this course will fill the need and that it will be given in such a manner that it will bring the desired results.

Respectfully,

O. H. Patterson

SUPERVISORS' TRAINING COURSE

FILES DIVISION

INTRODUCTION

- I. Supervision of others is a science - volumes have been written on it - lengthy studies have been made of the subject of Supervision.
- II. This course is short - brief - and is intended only to cover the salient points regarding the science of Supervision.
- III. The Unit Supervisors are the key people in the organization - you are the "first line" Supervisor. You come in direct contact with employees - the success or failure of the organization depends directly upon you.
- IV. There are two parts to Supervision or Management:
 - A. Supervising the work - this pertains to getting the work done by others.
 - B. Supervising the personnel - this pertains to handling your employees so that they will want to work.

ENCLOSURE

62-117290-6 ~~1703~~ 1703

ENCLOSURE

SUPERVISING THE WORK

- I. Supervision or Management is the responsibility for accomplishing results through the efforts of other people." You are a Supervisor - not a Unit worker.
- II. You must have vision - imagination - you must even "dream" - above all, you must THINK.
- III. "See Things" - be alert and alive to your surroundings - notice neatness or lack of neatness - notice the condition of the work in your Unit - see the little things - even be "old maidish."
- IV. Don't be a "Desk Supervisor" - get out on the floor - move around.
- V. Inspect constantly - check - check - check. Question every doubtful situation - dig into it - find out "why" a situation is not being handled.
- VI. Have INITIATIVE (Give dictionary definition) - do something - be aggressive.
- VII. Be prompt - get things done on time - don't have to be followed up - build a reputation for promptness and dependability.
- VIII. Know your job - learn it - dig in - always do the difficult thing first - don't bluff - get the answer.

II. Keep up to date on everything - know your work - don't get careless - if you do, you have failed as a Supervisor.

X. Be "on top" of your job - keep a tickler system (Explain this in detail). Follow up all instructions given to see if they are carried out - keep a full set of ticklers.

XI. Look out for detail - detail - detail. Check - check on everything.
BUT -

XII. Learn to delegate authority and responsibility - and then follow up to see that the job is done.

XIII. Criticize constructively when a job is not correctly done - after you have followed up and checked. Be cautious in your criticism - AND

XIV. Learn to take criticism and profit thereby. Don't be stubborn or narrow-minded - be honest with the organization and with yourself - never resent criticism - welcome it.

XV. Be open-minded - listen to suggestions - think - consider both sides of every matter before you make a decision. Don't ever conclude you know everything about your job. That is impossible and fatal.

XVI. Be a salesman - sell your job and yourself - your job is important no matter what it is - believe in it - let your superior know what you are doing - "Keep him advised" -- "Don't hide your light under a bushel."

XVII. If you make a mistake, confess it and start anew - never, never hide anything. Be HONEST.

XVIII. Be fair in your judgment of others and other Units. Don't criticize - never find fault unless you have something better to offer - don't be a chronic complainer - "Judge not that ye be not judged."

XIX. Above all, be DEPENDABLE. When you are instructed to do a thing - do it - get it done - right - in every detail.

XX. "GET RESULTS" -- excuses are worthless -- results only count.

XXI. Your ability alone counts -- get results or be prepared to step aside for someone who can.

SUPERVISING THE PERSONNEL

I. This is the most important and the most difficult task of all.

Only a few have the ability to lead and control others.

II. To supervise personnel, you must be a leader - you must be liked - you must be respected - you must have character and you must reflect it.

III. Be HONEST with yourself first - with others next - be fair and impartial with your employees - you cannot have favorites.

IV. Be COURTEOUS - "Please" and "Thank you" bring miraculous results - don't order - ask - be a lady or a gentleman - have good manners - be pleasant - but of course be firm when necessary.

V. Be PATIENT - you must understand the importance of sympathy and of understanding itself. Remember - when an employee comes to you with a problem, it is important to him no matter how trivial it is to you - take time - listen to him - let him pour out his troubles - he will solve his own problem - never be hasty.

VI. Be friendly - "To have a friend, you must be a friend." Remember names - call your employees by their names - say "Hello" first - never snub anyone. You can be the boss and a friend at the same time. Make your employees feel you are interested in them - make then like you first - then trust you - and never betray their trust.

VIII. Develop your personality - be alert - alive - friendly - express character and uprightness - be a Christian - make a good appearance - SMILE - be cheerful.

IX. "The worst sin and greatest human weakness is TEMPER." Never make a decision if you are angry - don't even speak - wait twenty-four hours before you act - NEVER LOSE YOUR TEMPER - never lose your poise - your control - if you do, you are no longer a leader.

X. You cannot ever become prejudiced toward an individual or a problem - be fair and open-minded - don't have likes and dislikes.

XI. Don't be conceited - "We" will accomplish more than "I." Be humble.

XII. To maintain discipline, you must be a leader - you must have control of all the traits set out above. Be firm and decisive - act promptly - you cannot hesitate. You must be respected or discipline will disappear.

XIII. Any employee can be handled. In handling a personnel problem, your first approach must always be one of friendliness, fair play, and reasoning with the employee. If this does not succeed, then quietly and firmly state the facts - what you expect the employee to do - never bluster or threaten - always be prepared to back up with action anything you say. (How To Win Friends and Influence People - by Dale Carnegie.)

XIV. Any difficulty between two or more employees can be straightened out. There are always two sides to any controversy - listen to both sides - get the employees involved together - let them talk - they will feel better and usually offer the solution themselves - listen to them - then step in with firmness and fairness - resort to chastisement and sternness only as a last resort but use it as forcefully as necessary. Honesty, fairness, and understanding will usually solve any personnel problem.

IV. Morale - "A mental attitude which impels the individual and the group to subordinate personal desires to the objective of the organization." You, more than anyone else, will bring about high or low morale among your employees - "You" are the organization to most of the employees because you have closer contact with them. Praise good work done - say "Thank you" when it is deserved - be on the alert for good work - a word of praise in its proper place is far more potent than volumes of criticism. Be constructive - not destructive - encourage your people constantly - flatter when necessary. But - when necessary, deflate the egotist with proper criticism, but only when deserved.

XVI. Criticism. When it is necessary to criticize an employee, so gently at first - you can always increase the severity of your criticism. Never use the full force of your criticism the first time. When criticizing or chastising an employee, be a lady or a gentleman - keep your temper - be constructive - be fair and reasonable and make the employee understand WHY he is being criticized. Strive to make the employees feel grateful for the criticism, not resentful. -

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS
U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (HSCA)

Enclosed are the original and two copies of a memorandum responding to an HSCA request by letter of March 27, 1978.

The Committee has asked for delivery of photographic items from the FBI's "Assassination of President John F. Kennedy" file. One of the items required the duplication of a 16 millimeter film. Since the HSCA has indicated its willingness to pay for the cost of such duplication, it is being advised of the expense involved.

Because of the bulk of these items, the Committee may obtain them in Room 8988 at FBI Headquarters.

You are requested to furnish a copy of the memorandum to the HSCA.

Enclosures ENCLOSURE

NOTE: This matter has been coordinated with Special Projects Section, Laboratory Division, and Budget and Accounting Section, Administrative Services Division. Informal contact with Jane Downey, HSCA, has served to advise her that Item Number 4 is not identifiable in Bureau files.

I, Leslie J. Norregard, have read a letter directed by G. Bell, Attorney General of the United States, on April 19, 1978, concerning [REDACTED] and Antulio Ramirez Ortiz. (b)(7)(c)

[REDACTED]

Based on the above, I caused a review of Los Angeles indices to be made under the following names: [REDACTED] (b)(7)(c)

[REDACTED] Antulio Ramirez Ortiz, and Antulio Ortiz.

All indices were negative with the exception of those pertaining to Antulio Ramirez Ortiz, aka Antulio Ortiz, who is the subject of case captioned "Antulio Ramirez Ortiz, Internal Security - Cuba; ITSA; Kidnapping; CBS - Assault," which concerns Ortiz' involvement in the hijacking of a National Airlines flight from Miami, Florida, to Havana, Cuba, on May 1, 1961. [REDACTED] (b)(7)(c)

[REDACTED] Other references to this individual were also located but they were directly connected to this hijack matter.

I have personally reviewed all Los Angeles files pertaining to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy on November 22, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, along with our files pertaining to Ortiz' hijacking of the National Airlines flight from Miami to Havana on May 1, 1961, and other related files pertaining to American aircraft hijackers in Cuba and Cuban Intelligence. No written and/or recorded records were found [REDACTED] pertaining to any contacts by this Office with [REDACTED] (b)(7)(c)
