Informant's Comments Concerning
YURI NOSENKO (u)

Informant stated that during the past week he has heard no further comments made in KGB quarters in the Soviet Mission regarding YURI NOSENKO, the Soviet national who recently defected to American intelligence authorities in Geneva. (u)

Informant said that so far as he knows, no photographs of NOSENKO have been received by the KGB quarters in NY from Moscow, although it can be expected that these will be arriving shortly. Informant said that when these photographs are received, they will undoubtedly be shown to all KGB personnel in NY, so that everyone will be fully acquainted with NOSENKO's general appearance and characteristics, and will be able to recognize him on sight should they happen to meet him on the streets in NY.
