1. Reference is made to our CSC [redacted] and attachments.

2. This office desires to express its appreciation for the time and effort which your representatives made in studying the attachments to the reference, and for the questions and observations made during the meeting held on 1 April 1964. It is our opinion that such meetings are enormously beneficial to us in attempting to clarify and understand the actions and operations of the Soviet Intelligence Services directed against the United States, both at home and abroad. We appreciate the interest and the contributions which the representatives of your Bureau made on this subject, and believe that we shall both benefit as a result.
